

Letter Not for Accused Nazi's Hearing, Cardinal Says

Los Angeles (NC) — Cardinal Timothy Manning of Los Angeles said that a letter he wrote regarding accused Nazi war criminal Andrija Artukovic was not intended to intervene in the man's deportation proceedings but only asked that he be allowed to be with his family pending the court's decision. Artukovic, 85, faced deportation for his alleged involvement in war crimes as a Nazi officer in Croatia during World War II. Artukovic, who suffers from Alzheimer's disease, was arrested at his home in Surfside, Calif., Nov. 14 and was being held without bail in federal custody at the Long Beach Naval Hospital. Cardinal Manning's comments came in a letter to Rabbi Alfred Wolf, interreligious consultant to the American Jewish Committee, after the rabbi had met with the cardinal to convey Jewish protests of a Nov. 27 letter the cardinal wrote to Artukovic's son, Radoslav. In that letter the cardinal said that "for many years (your father) has earned the respect of the priests of his church and they are deeply concerned for his welfare. In a spirit of compassion I write these words to you, hoping your cherished father will merit the indulgence of the court and be returned to the care of his family." The letter was submitted with others on behalf of Artukovic to U.S. Magistrate Volney V. Brown Jr., who has been hearing the deportation case.
