In Rochester, Fisher grads succeed — here's why

Paul E. Haney '63, C.P.A.
Vice President, Comptroller
Rochester Health Network
City Councilman,
City of Rochester

"In my professional life and in graduate school, I have always felt as well prepared by my undergraduate experience at Fisher as anyone I ever met. I wouldn't hesitate to say I received what Fisher promised, a good solid education."

Fisher grads come from challenging academic programs and are ready for the complex demands of the work world.

Fisher grads have confidence because they receive encouragement and support from their first interview through graduation from a caring staff of trained counselors and superb faculty advisors.

When you choose a college, choose the one that will help you prepare for life and prepare for living.
