

Jeff Goulding/Courier-Journal

Supreme Court Judge Michael Telesca greets Father Lavery and Former Governor Malcolm Wilson during the testimonial dinner for Father Lavery Monday, June 17.

Lavery Testimonial

Continued from Page 1

Father Lavery explained that when his mother was writing her will, he had urged her to leave him out as he would be taken care of by the Basilian order. But after her death, he found that he had been included in the will nonetheless, so he used the money to start the scholarship.

He said he was deeply grateful to the diocese and friends gathered to honor him, and said that with humility he would "offer the event to Almighty God for his parents and for you all."

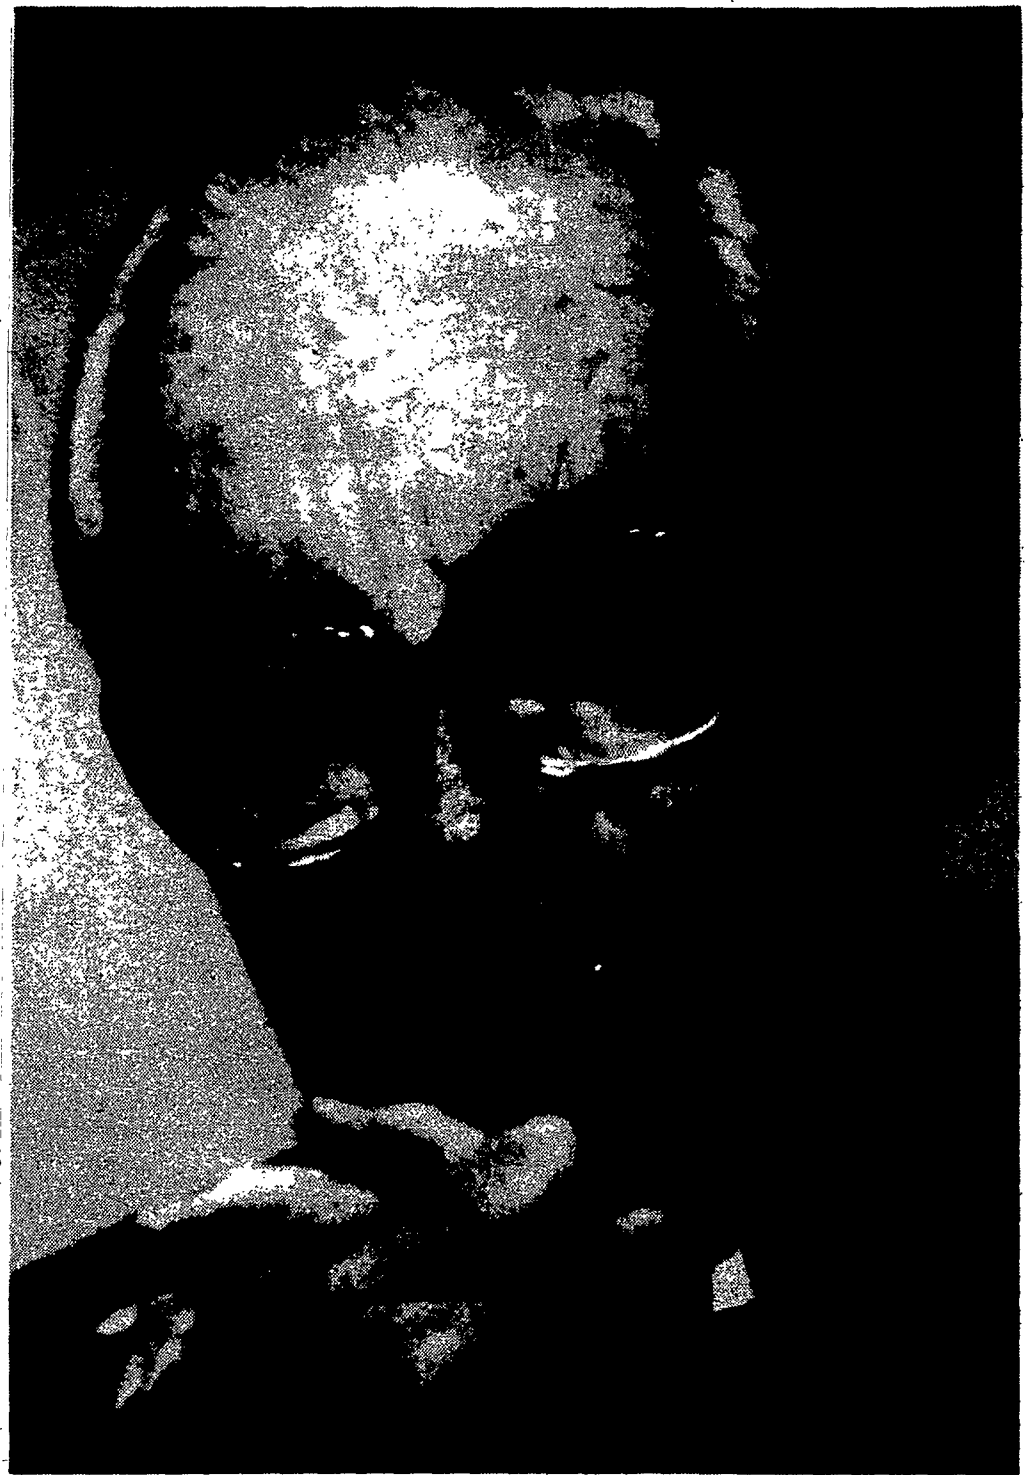

Father Lavery recounted several anecdotes from his years at Fisher — including when in 1963 he had hosted at the college the delegates from the World Council of Churches, which held its annual convention in Rochester that year.

He concluded by thanking the audience for their contributions to the fund and for having honored him. He also expressed his gratitude to those who worked to make the dinner possible.

Other speakers at the dinner were Richard W. McGrath, chairman of the Fisher Alumni Association; Mildred C. Boylan, former teacher and co-chairwoman of The John Fisher Associates; Clarence G. Heining Jr., professor of chemistry and former dean of the college; Margaret L. McMahon, administrative assistant to the president of the college; Alex Cameron, former executive director of Rochester Area Colleges; and Father James K. McConica, president of the University of St. Michael's College of the University of Toronto. Master of ceremonies was James D. Ryan, chairman of the college's board of trustees. The Star Spangled Banner was sung by H. Wendell Howard, college provost. The invocation was given by college president, Father Patrick O. Braden, and the benediction was given by Father Joseph A. Trovato, superior of the Basilian Fathers of St. John Fisher College.

The dinner had been arranged by a committee, headed by Fisher vice president of communications, Martin Q. Moll; Father Patrick O. Braden, C.S.B.; Thomas and Virginia O'Connor; Phillip and Catherine DiPasquale; Richard W. McGrath; and Margaret L. McMahon.

Father Lavery pauses a moment to reflect on the words of the numerous speakers.

Community Calendar

Thursday, June 27

MEETING: Genesee Region Administrators of Volunteer Services; Rochester Museum and Science Center; noon; luncheon — $8; reservations required by June 20; call Fayga Press, (716)271-0570.

WORKSHOP: for adults considering return to college; sponsored by Rochester Area Colleges Continuing Education Committee; Nazareth College Otto A. Shults Community Center; 7-9:30 p.m.; no charge; reservations suggested; call (716)586-2525, ext. 400.

THEATER: "Subject to Change" at the Rochester Museum & Science Center's Shipping Dock Theater; Thursday to Sundays through July 21; call (716)271-4320 for reservations or more information.

Friday, June 28

ORIENTATION: incoming student course selection and orientation; Nazareth College; call Registrar for more information, (716)586-2525, ext. 406.

Saturday, June 29

CLINIC: free blood pressure checks; sponsored by Irondequoit Volunteer Ambulance Service; Culver-Ridge Plaza; 10 a.m.-7 p.m.; open to all; IVA members also available to answer questions about the service.

DANCE: sponsored by the Solo Club for singles 30 and over; St. Cecilia's Church, 2732 Culver Road; 9 p.m.; admission, $3; music by Greg Nunn; call Annette, (716)482-6598, Shirley, (716)467-1230.

BAKE SALE: sponsored by organizations of St. Patrick's Church, Seneca Falls; proceeds aid "Helping Hands" fund for unemployed; after all weekend Masses; donations welcome.

MINISTRY WORKSHOP: for Eucharistic ministers; Holy Apostles School Hall; 9:30 a.m.-4 p.m.; register with diocesan Liturgy Office, (716)328-3210; $3 registration fee.

Sunday, June 30

PICNIC: "Hats Off To St. Mary's" featuring Monroe County Parks Band; Washington Square Park; Mass at 11:30 a.m.; festivities 1:30-3:30 p.m.; balloons, clowns, food and pony rides available; visitors asked to wear hats; prizes awarded for most unique and other categories; public invited; tickets—$4; departing staff Bishop Joseph L. Hogan and Sisters Sheila Walsh.

SSJ, and Kathy Milliken, RSM, to be honored; call (716)232-7140 for more information.

FESTIVAL: St. Casimir's Summer Festival in Elmira; Polka Mass — 11 a.m.; Polish and American foods, chicken barbecue, music and entertainment; 2 polka bands and more fun; noon-?

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION: St. Columba and St. Patrick Churches in Caledonia and Mumford; parade in period costume at 10 a.m.; Mass at 11 a.m.; picnic following.

HEALING SERVICE: National Shrine of the North American Martyrs in Auriesville, N.Y.; healing and restoration service by Father Edward J. McDonough, CSSR; 10 a.m. — teaching and prayer in Martyrs' Open Chapel; 11:30 — lunch and private prayer; 1:30 p.m. — healing service; 4 p.m. — Mass.

Monday, July 1

COURSES: Our Lady of Mercy "Summer Options '85;" 8:30-11 a.m. daily through July 31; art, computers, writing and SAT prep; $80 tuition; call Sister Jacqueline, (716) 288-7210.

BENEFIT GOLF TOURNAMENT: Mark Dillon Memorial Golf Tournament; Brockport Country Club; starts 11 a.m.; $30 fee; call (716)544-7382 for information.

BASKETBALL CAMP: Shot Doctor Camp at Nazareth College; boys and girls 10-18; Otto Shultz Community Center; through Wednesday, July 3; 9 a.m.-5 p.m.; $89; call Bill Nelson, (716)586-2525, ext. 428.

SWIMMING CAMP: boys and girls, 7-18; weekly sessions Monday-Friday; 8:15-11:15 a.m.; $50 per week; through August 16; Nazareth College Shultz Center; group and multi-week rates available; call athletic office, (716)586-2525, ext. 420.

Tuesday, July 2

RETREAT: guided retreat by Father Dominic Maruca, SJ; through Tuesday, July 9; The Cenacle Spiritual Center, 693 East Avenue; call (716)271-8755.

Send us information on upcoming events you're planning! Each Wednesday's issue includes events scheduled Thursday through the following Friday.

Neighbors in the News

Rochester natives Janine Cassata of Greece Athena High School and Susan Dwyer of Batavia High School are two of nine freshmen and transfers competing for spots on St. John Fisher College's volleyball team this fall.

Other in-state competitors include Shannon Black from Amsterdam, Dina Biemier of West Seneca, Karen Neuman of Crugers, Patricia Rodriguez of Chittenango, Ann Taylor of Whitney Point and Cynthia Gunner, a graduate of Charlotte High School in Rochester who is transferring from Monroe Community College.

Phyllis M. Landrigan has been promoted to full professorship at Nazareth College. The vice president of the Genesee Valley Psychological Association and co-editor of its newsletter, she introduced gerontology as a concentration at Nazareth.

After joining the faculty in 1973, she also served as chairman of the Social Sciences Department for eight years. Landrigan earned a doctorate in psychology from Washington University in St. Louis, where she researched memory and aging.

The Italian Women's Civic Club recently presented Dr. Thomas Fabiano, chairman of the Italian/American Committee for the Arts, a check for $1,000. The grant will be used to purchase a statue titled "The Immigrants" for the Riverside Convention Center in the name of the Italian/American community.

New parish council members and officers were elected at St. Catherine of Siena in Ithaca. Marcella Cox, Joseph Moresco and Walter Poland will serve three-year terms. Poland was also chosen as vice chairman. Other officers chosen at the council's June meeting were Gerard Pribanic, chairman, and Susan Pillero, corresponding secretary.

Nearby All Saints Church in Lansing also held parish council elections recently. Jerry Hass and Andrew LaVigne were selected as new members. All Saints' will choose officers for the council at their next meeting. The parish's annual festival was also set for Sunday, August 4 at the Lansing Rod & Gun Club.

West Side Manor, a suburban residence for the well elderly on Long Pond Road in Greece, has a new activities director. Michelle Carcione will supervise arts and crafts, exercise programs and field trips, and will bring special events and entertainment from all over the greater Rochester area to the manor.

Carcione has previously managed activities for Catholic Charities in Syracuse and earned a bachelor's degree in social work from SUNY Brockport.

A team from Nazareth College won honorable mention in the U.S. Department of Education's first Mathematical Competition in Modeling. Members of the team are seniors Lori Board of Victor and Donna Conte of Chili, and Elaine Abbott, a teacher-certification candidate from Brighton.

More than 150 teams took part in the contest, but only the top 38 won honorable mention or higher awards. Asked to build a mathematical model to maintain a strategic reserve of a rare material in the U.S., the team prepared a six-page solution paper complete with graphs and charts. James Bradley, chairman of mathematics and computer science at Nazareth, was the contest's local coordinator.

Bishop Matthew H. Clark presented Frederick and Jean Lapple of Irondequoit with the Bishop Kearney High School Principal's Medal at the school's 20th commencement exercises Sunday, June 9, at the Eastman Theater.

The award recognizes "those individuals who have devoted time, talent and energy over a period of years to further the welfare of Bishop Kearney High School." Brother Brian Walsh, Kearney's outgoing principal, noted that the Lapples began the "Kearney Carnival" and other fund raisers, which have raised $1.5 million over the past 15 years.

Frederick Lapple is Monroe County's director of personnel/civil service. Jean Lapple, a registered nurse, is active as a volunteer in the community.

The American Cancer Society has chosen Susan Park to receive its scholarship for professional social workers who consistently work with cancer sufferers in rural hospital settings. The award will provide Park with additional specialized clinical training in her field.