

Jeff Goulding / Courier-Journal

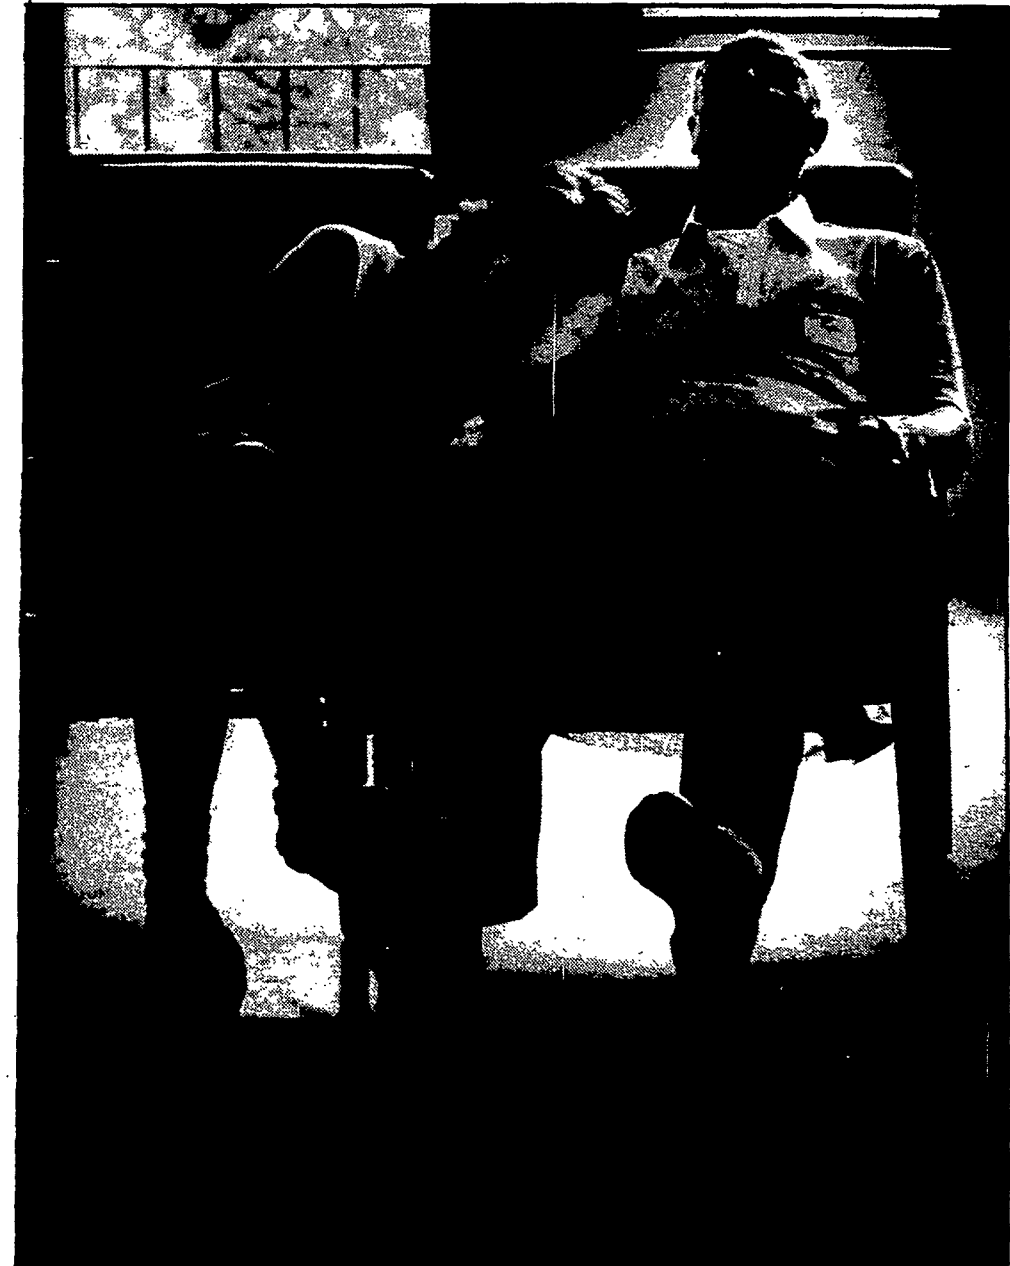

tra, left, and Victor Mauro spend some quiet time on the beach. Maureen is about to do some reading, and Victor is waiting for the wind to die down so that he can go out fishing.

Maureen pauses a moment in her reading to talk with a fellow camper who holds onto a hat to blowing away.

"Fluff" Mauro directs the group in the "Johnny Apple Seed" grace prior to the evening meal.

Donna Angevine and "Fletch" take a breather after a morning aerobics class.