

Neighbors in the News

The men's soccer team at St. John Fisher College has a new leader in Michael Savidas, who has been named coach for the upcoming season. The 27-year-old Fisher alumnus played one season for the college and has taught at Monroe High School since 1981 while coaching soccer, wrestling and tennis.

Savidas replaces Vic Carlson, a 1964 Fisher graduate, who resigned after the 1984 season with a four-year record of 14-47-2. The 1985 season opens at home on Sunday, September 8 against SUNY Potsdam.

Joseph G. Arcarese has been promoted by Nazareth College to the newly created position of associate treasurer. The Penfield resident had served as controller and business manager at Nazareth since 1981, when he joined the college.

The promotion recognizes Arcarese's additional responsibilities in areas of cash management, in-house management of the college's endowment, and payroll. Before coming to Nazareth, he served as audit officer for Lincoln First Bank.

Karen Noble Hanson of Pittsford has been appointed by Governor Mario M. Cuomo to the New York State Job Development Authority for a term expiring in January, 1986. The vice president of Genesee Management, Inc. of Rochester, Hanson has served as special assistant to the administrator of the Farmer's Home Administration for the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and as regional representative for the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture.

Hanson is a member of the board of directors for the Bishop Sheen Ecumenical Housing Foundation.

Sister Marie R. Castagnaro, S.S.J., who recently joined the staff of St. Joseph's Hospital in Elmira as an administrative planning assistant, has been named to the hospital's board of directors. A native of Rochester, she holds a master's degree in administration from Notre Dame University.

Meanwhile, Sister Mary Wnest, S.S.J., has retired from the board after 21 years of service. Sister came to St. Joseph's in 1933, and with the exception of two years spent at Nazareth College, has worked there in the laboratory and nuclear medicine department.

As the first vice president of medical affairs at St. Mary's Hospital, Dr. Vito Laglia will work closely with the medical staff and its president on accreditation, quality assurance and on-going clinical analysis, and will serve as the liaison between the hospital's board of trustees, physicians and administration.

A graduate of the University of Buffalo School of Medicine, Dr. Laglia has been on the medical staff at St. Mary's since 1949. He and his wife live in North Chili.

Sister M. Felicita Butrim, O.S.F., is celebrating 50 years as a religious. She attended Holy Redeemer School, St. George's School and Our Lady of Mercy High School.

In her junior year at Mercy, she entered the Sisters of St. Francis of the Providence of God, Pittsburgh, Pa. She is currently teaching in the Diocese of Pittsburgh and is active with Lithuanian groups, teaching the Lithuanian language on Saturdays.

Sister asks readers to join with her in prayer, thanking God for the blessings received in these 50 years.

St. Joseph's Hospital in Elmira has a new medical director for its Psychiatric Inpatient Acute Care Unit. Dr. Thomas R. Downey will head the new unit, which is slated to open in mid-1986.

Formerly chief of the psychiatric section at the Guthrie Clinic in Sayre, Pa., Downey, his wife and three sons live in Athens, Pa. A graduate of Ursinus College, he received his M.D. from Hahnemann Medical College in Philadelphia, interned at the Valley Forge Army Hospital and completed residency at the Institute of Pennsylvania Hospital.

A specialist in romance languages and literature has been named director of the Casa Italiana of Nazareth College. Mary Ann J. Aiello, a Nazareth alumna, will replace Virginia Otto, who retired at the end of the last academic year.

Aiello, who holds a doctor's degree from Harvard University, last spring tutored students from the Brockport School District in English while completing a master's degree in education.

Sister M. Rosaire Bryant, C.P.S., observed her silver jubilee on June 30 in Shillington, Pa., on the occasion of the Missionary Sisters of the Precious Blood centenary celebration. Sister Rosaire is the daughter of Edmund C. Bryant Sr. and the late Catherine M. Bryant of Conkey Avenue.

Thomas R. Allen, a Rochester native who has held an administrative post at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, Ill., since 1979, will return to this area as Nazareth College's new Dean for Student Affairs in August.

"My first motivation in taking the job at Nazareth is that it's an opportunity to use my years of professional experience directly in the area of student affairs. My second motivation is coming back to my home and my wife's home," Allen said. He and his wife, the former Karen Arras of Webster, have three sons.

The director of the diocesan religious education office, Sister Mary Ann Binsack, R.S.M., was re-elected chairperson of the New York State Council of Diocesan Directors of Religious Education at their June meeting.

Sister Mary Ann has been diocesan director since 1981 and chairperson of the council since 1983. The council meets four times each year to discuss and act on religious education issues. Rochester will be the site of their gathering on November 5th.

The Catholic Youth Organization has chosen 14 youths to receive CYO medals, recognizing outstanding contributions to the program. They are: Maureen McCarthy of Brooks Hill School; Timothy Spooner and Kelly DePaw of St. Michael's School in Newark; Mary Elizabeth Grieco of St. John the Evangelist; Ryan Sutter of St. Boniface; Thomas and Catherine Abernatha of Corning Catholic School South; Daniel Meyer, Dan Pierce and Thomas Marron of Cardinal Mooney; Mark J. Bock of McQuaid; Andrea Malone of St. James; Mark Campolieto of St. John of Rochester; Reggie Wade, Jr. of Good Shepherd; and Jack Martin.

Education is your door to new worlds.

If you've been thinking about part-time college programs, St. John Fisher College can open new worlds for you: the world of business, the world of science, the world of people.

- Complete degree programs available evenings and Saturdays.
- Career development and professional certification programs for your needs.
- Over $23,000 in State financial aid available for part-time degree students.
- Registration is simple and parking is free.

If you're looking for new worlds, let Fisher open doors for you. Call Fisher and ask for new brochure. Call 385-8317

Continuing Education
St. John Fisher College
 3690 East Avenue
 Rochester, New York 14618

St. John Fisher College admits students without regard to race, creed, sex, nationality, ethnic origin, or handicap.

Classes begin September 3

Undergraduate Registration continues through August 30. 385-8064
 MBA Fall Registration now through September 5, by appointment 385-8079

We specialize in wedding receptions

Salmon Creek Country Club

355 Washington St., Spencerport

- WEDDINGS • SHOWERS
- REHEARSAL DINNERS
- ALL YOUR CATERING NEEDS

Some choice 1985 dates still available
 Now booking for 1986!!!

352-3664 — 352-4300

Banquets for 30-175 persons
Buffet style or waitress service