

Birch provide comfortable, friendly atmosphere for kids

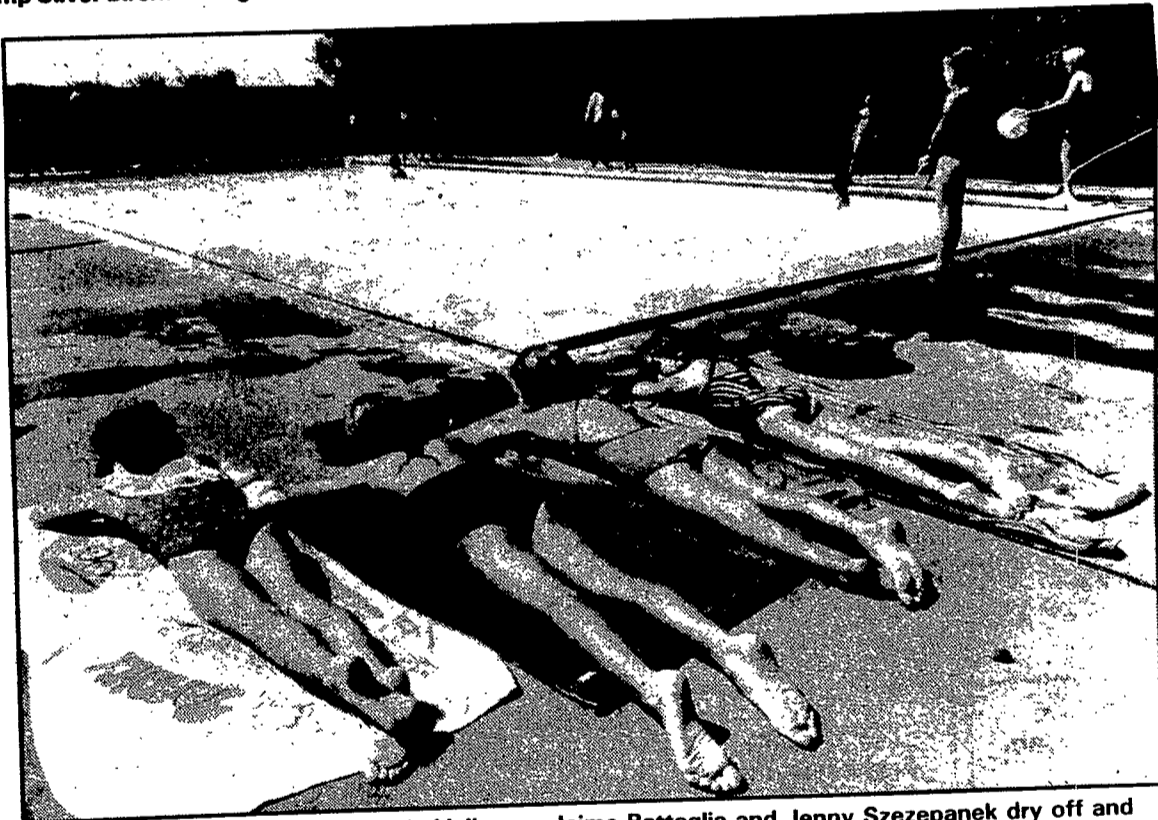

or '73,
s Sister
music at ects the r Birch children
one or
or four umodate 11 each
g lists.
e camps
ren and
e camp,
ere just
children
that it's
ger ones,
for the summer asure of mps are the re-

tance of a school-
A lot of re famil-
plained,
sisters."
s also a
ers. "It's rent way
Barbara
Nazareth

Jeff Goulding/Courier-Journal

Brenden Farrell, 7, tries to send this ball downtown during a game at Camp Silver Birch. The game was played with an unlimited number of strikes.

Christine Switzer, left, Anna Marie Valbergs, Jaime Battaglia and Jenny Szezepanek dry off and take in some sun at poolside at Camp Silver Birch.

Kerry Hayes, left, and Sara Bergen find a quiet place to eat their brown-bag lunch in front of the SSJ motherhouse.

Tamiya Powell enjoys some music along with the homemade ice cream

SSJ.

ool.