WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

October 20

So many live without hope....

The world needs Christ, as He lives in us, to sanctify....

to share our talents.

TO BRING GOOD NEWS

How many people live without hope who have never met a brother or sister who touches their lives with the love of Christ?

Two thirds of our human family have never heard the only news that really counts.

Around the world, the Gospel is proclaimed by priests and religious as they sanctify themselves; by young people as they share the love that gives meaning to their own lives; by all who use the talents given them to bring others to the comfort of Faith.

To bring Good News to the poor was the mission of Jesus on earth, the mission of each of His disciples.

To follow Him today is to take on the mission of Jesus: to give a portion of our lives in prayer so that the poorest of our family may be saved.

On World Mission Sunday, answer the call: to send His Good News around the world.
