

Activities Around the Diocese

Accounting Career Day

A special career day in accounting will be presented at St. John Fisher College, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., Saturday, October 26, for high school and college transfer students.

Participants will receive first hand information from accounting professionals. This program is free and open to the public, but advance registration is recommended.

The program will provide an overview of public, industrial and non-profit accounting, featuring professionals in every field.

Separate hour-long panel discussions given by Fisher accounting graduates will follow. Recent Fisher graduates will also share their experiences as "young professionals in the accounting world."

Registration and information may be obtained by calling Fisher's Admissions Office at 385-8064.

Annual Spaghetti Dinner

St. Andrew's Annual Spaghetti Dinner will be October 24th in the school hall, 923 Portland Ave.

Dinners will be served at noon and from 4:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Ticket prices are $3.75 for adults and $2 for children under 12. Tickets may be obtained at the door or by calling (716)342-8686. Tickets are also available through the Rosary Society, Holy Name members and at coffee hours.

Parenting Workshop

The Adult Education Committee of St. Mary's Catholic Church, will sponsor a parenting workshop 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. Wednesday nights, Oct. 30 through Nov. 13, at the St. Mary's School Hall, 43 Elizabeth St., Dansville.

Sessions one and two (Oct. 30 and Nov. 6) will be conducted by Ed and Donna Gaffney of Penn Yan, directors of a youth center, teachers and parents of four children. Ed Gaffney has also received awards for teaching, and has been a coach for fifteen years.

Session three (Nov. 13) will be conducted by Dick and Marie Kunz of Corning. Both have experience working with teenagers and are parents of three children. Dick Kunz has a master of divinity degree.

Additional information is available by calling Shirley Wildrick at (716)335-8700 or Joan and Jim Dziedzic at 335-3379.

Family Life Series

St. Mary's Church in Dansville will offer a three-part series on parenting beginning Wednesday, Oct. 30. Other sessions will be offered November 6 and 13. All three will be from 7:30-9 p.m. in the school hall.

Sponsored by St. Mary's adult education committee, the first and second evenings will feature Ed and Donna Gaffney of Penn Yan. Dick and Ann Marie Kunz of Corning will speak at the final session. The program is free and open to the public.

MOVING?

Please Remember to Include
Your Mailing Label when notifying us of an address change.

COURIER-JOURNAL

Bishop Matthew H. Clark
President

Bishop Dennis W. Hickey
General Manager

Karen M. Franz
Editor

Vol 97, No. 3 October 24, 1985

Courier-Journal (USPS 135-580)

Published weekly except week after July 4 and Christmas, by the Rochester Catholic Press Association. Subscription rates: Single copy 35¢. One-year subscription in U.S. $15. Canada and Foreign $20. Offices: 114 South Union St., Rochester, N.Y. 14607, (716) 454-7050. Second Class Postage paid at Rochester, N.Y. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to Courier-Journal, 114 S. Union St., Rochester, N.Y. 14607.

Jeff Goulding/Courier-Journal

'Brother Sun, Sister Moon'

October 5 was a special day at St. John the Evangelist parish in Rochester. At 10:30 a.m., about 35 parishioners gathered in the church basement with an assortment of pets, ranging from dogs and cats to a single goldfish. All the animals sat peacefully with their masters while Sister Nadine Koza, OSF, gave a blessing in honor of St. Francis, whose feast day was the previous day. Above, left to right, are: Shelby; Mary Ann Allen; Luke, age 2; and Meredith, age 5; who have placed their hands on their cat, Quincy, resting in the box.

Sister Takes Final Vows

Sister Kathleen Wayne, religious education coordinator at St. Salome's Parish, will make profession of final vows as a Sister of Mercy Saturday, Oct. 26, 2 p.m., during a Eucharistic liturgy at St. Salome's Church, Culver Road, Irondequoit.

Father Albert Delmonte, pastor of St. Salome's Parish, will be the celebrant. Sister Jean Marie Kearse, superior general of the Mercy congregation, will officiate at the Rite of Profession.

The liturgy's theme will be "I will celebrate your love forever, Yahweh."

Sister Kathleen, a 1975 graduate of Notre Dame High School in Elmira, entered the Mercy congregation in 1979 after graduating from SUNY Geneseo. She is currently studying summers at St. Louis University for a masters degree in religious studies.

Sister Kathleen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wayne of Elmira.

Speaker on Lay Ministry

Ellen Steinhilber, pastoral associate in the Buffalo diocese, will speak Wednesday, Oct. 23, 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m., at St. Rita's Church, 1008 Maple Drive, Webster, on the topic of lay ministry.

Topics of Steinhilber's discussion will be: "What are the needs of our faith community?" "Who are the hurting people in our lives?" and techniques such as listening, being present, caring and touching.

Refreshments will follow the discussion.

Film Series Offered

The film series "Jesus as I Know Him," by Father Powell, will be at Stephens School Hall, Geneva, at 7:30 October 23 and 30, and November 6, 13 and 20.

Titles included are "Who is Jesus," "What Does Jesus Think of a Sinner," and "Save Your Heart for Love."

All are welcome, and refreshments will be served.

CORRECTION:

In last weeks issue of the Courier-Journal, the Healing Service at Saints Peter and Paul Church, Tuesday, November 5th had an incorrect time of 4:30 p.m.

The correct time is 7:30 p.m. Please make note of this, and we apologize for the inconvenience.

St. Helen's students gathered food for St. Peter's Kitchen to mark World Food Day. From left to right these first-graders are Kathleen Sullivan, Amanda Bayeur, Tammy Bush, Matthew Dill, Robin Rudd and Erin Nau.

St. Helen's Food Day

Prayer services and food collections were two of the ways students at St. Helen's School last week marked World Food Day, a United Nations effort to increase public awareness of hunger around the world.

Donations of non-perishable food were given to St. Peter's Kitchen. Children were also encouraged to contribute their own money, earned by odd jobs or through allowances, to help others.

Corporate Communion

Members of six Cammanderies of the Rochester Regiment will be joined by laides of the New York District Auxiliary Knights of St. John for an annual Corporate Communion, Sunday Oct. 27.

Members will attend an 8:30 Mass at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, followed by a breakfast in the Parish Center, hosted by Cammandery 40 and Auxiliary 45 of the church.

Parish Renewal Mission

Father Smyth, a Redemptorist priest and well-known preacher from New York City, will conduct a Mission for Spiritual Renewal at Ss. Peter and Paul's Church, Elmira.

The week of Spiritual Renewal begins Sunday, Oct. 27 and ends Friday, Nov. 1.

A Healing Mass for the sick will be Sunday, Oct. 27, 3 p.m., with the opening of the Mission at 7:30 p.m..

Monday, Oct. 28 to Friday, Nov. 1, services will be at 11:30 a.m., with Masses at 12:05 p.m. each day. Preaching service will be 7:30 p.m. each evening.

Classical Presentation

Internationally acclaimed artists Sonya Monosoff and Barbara Harbach will play at the Arts Center of Nazareth College Sunday Oct. 27 and Sunday Nov. 3. Both performances will begin at 3 p.m. in the main auditorium.

Monosoff, playing the violin, and Harbach, playing the harpsichord, will perform the six Sonatas for Violin and Harpsichord by Johann Sebastian Bach.

The first three Sonatas will be performed

Oct. 27, while the fourth through sixth will be played Nov. 3.

Harbach is a former member of the Nazareth College music faculty and currently director of keyboard studies at SUNY Buffalo. Monosoff is a professor of music at Cornell University.

Tickets are $6 and available at the box office, 4245 East Ave., or by calling (716)586-2420.