

Sisters of Rochester Diocese share in a Jubilee Celebration

Sisters of the Diocese of Rochester celebrated their silver, golden and diamond anniversaries of their final professions Saturday, Oct. 19, at the High Acres Retreat House, Geneva.

The theme of the informal liturgy was "Women at the Well." The readings, gospel and hymns during the Mass followed that theme, demonstrating that the Lord gives us water and turns it into a spring inside us, welling up to eternal life. Principal celebrant and homilist for the liturgy was Bishop Matthew H. Clark.

Sisters of Mercy, Notre Dame School, and St. Joseph, and Religious of the Cenacle participated in the jubilee celebration. A buffet luncheon followed the Mass.

Sisters sing the closing song "All My Days" at the annual jubilee celebration of their final professions, at the High Acres Retreat House, Geneva. Father Louis Vasile and Bishop Clark preside at the celebration.

The still-life, "Come to the Water", illustrates the theme of the liturgy.

What is Lupus?

Lupus Erythematosus — A chronic, inflammatory disease whose cause and cure are currently unknown.

It affects over half million Americans of both sexes, but particularly women of child bearing age. Lupus can involve the skin and many different body organs. Although Lupus is controllable in most people, it will be fatal in approximately 5,000 cases in the U.S.A. this year. Serious and widespread, it is a disease important to you.
