

Neighbors in the News

A retired corporate vice president of Xerox Corporation was honored last month at a principal's reception for donors to Our Lady of Mercy High School. John Glavin of Brighton was awarded the 1985 McAuley Award for outstanding contributions to the Rochester community and Mercy High School. He is the father of nine children, four of whom are Mercy graduates.

Sister Judith Heberle, Mercy principal, said of Glavin: "He is a person who has given hours of commitment to Mercy without counting the cost. He is very caring and dedicated to responding to the needs of the times."

Nazareth College alumna Eileen Thaney Morton-Cubitt and her family have established the Elmer Thaney Family Memorial Scholarship with a recent $4,000 gift to her alma mater. The scholarship honors the memory of her father, who died in October, 1984. It will assist business students who enroll at Nazareth after graduating from Monroe Community College.

Thaney Morton-Cubitt served as professor of secretarial science at MCC for 23 years. A member of Nazareth's Class of 1950, she is a former alumni trustee. In 1984 she received the Outstanding Alumni Award from Nazareth College's Alumni Association.

Two juniors at Our Lady of Mercy High School attended a NASA workshop at Kennedy Space Center and viewed the space shuttle Challenger's launch on Wednesday, Oct. 30.

Denise Marentette of Pittsford (far right) and Barbara Grady of Macedon (center) traveled to Florida with their physics teacher, Mary Nickles of Fairport. They joined a group of about 60 New York state students and teachers. Students were selected based on their academic records and on essays stating how they intended to use the experience. Within a few years, Nickles said she hoped to be taking students on trips in the Shuttle Spacelab to do experiments.

St. Mary's Hospital has announced three new appointments. Donald Clark will be the hospital's director of marketing, a newly created position that "will play a vital role in the continuing development of St. Mary's," said executive vice president Jim Ball.

Clark comes to St. Mary's from Cincinnati, where he was vice president for marketing and strategic planning for Martiny and Co. He earned a bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of Notre Dame and a master's degree in communications from Boston University. He is married and has three children.

A staff nurse at St. Mary's for the past six years, Ellen Lindahl, has been promoted to nursing administration associate. In her new job, she will coordinate critical care nursing, do cost accounting and clinical analysis.

Valerie Jones has been named nurse manager in the area of maternal/child nursing. A graduate of Keuka College, she comes to St. Mary's from Strong Memorial Hospital.

Nursing Open House

Nazareth College will offer an open house for nurses interested in the college's upper-level baccalaureate nursing program Tuesday, Dec. 10, 7:30 p.m., in Room 236 of Smyth Hall.

The presentation will discuss the baccalaureate program which is the only one in Gary A. LaLonde has enrolled in the Professional Training Program of the Onondaga Pastoral Counseling Center's Gordon D. Hoople Training Institute. LaLonde is director of religious education at St. Mary's Church in Auburn.

Participants in the two-year program meet one day a week to develop advanced counseling skills for use in parish and community settings. Those who complete the course will be awarded a certificate of pastoral care, which is affiliated with the doctor of ministry degree at Colgate Rochester Divinity School.

Catholic Charismatic Renewal hosted two major events in the greater Rochester area last month. Three members of the National Service Committee, Father Ralph Weishaar of San Diego (above, standing), Walter Matthews of South Bend, Ind., and Rudy Pruden of Washington, met with local prayer group leaders early in October. The purpose of their visit was to strengthen ties between the national and local organizations.

Sacred Heart Cathedral was the site for the annual General Assembly of prayer group leaders. Father Karl Recker, diocesan liaison from Toledo, Ohio, was a guest at the assembly. Dick Pelino (left), a parishioner at the Church of the Resurrection in Fairport, and Mike Haugh, from the Bread of Life Community and Cardinal Mooney High School, were elected to the Coordinating Team for Catholic Charismatic Renewal. Team members work with Father Jim Connolly, S.J. (center), diocesan liaison, to direct and program the movement in the Rochester area. Ernie DelPrince is also a member of the team.

An administrative director has been named for the new Inpatient Psychiatric Unit of St. Joseph's Hospital in Elmira. Nancy Erwin will direct the unit which is scheduled to open in April, 1986, along with the hospital's Behavioral Science Center. She has previously worked as an administrator of a private psychiatric hospital in Petersburg, Va.

Erwin has earned a bachelor's degree in nursing from the University of Virginia and a master's degree in psychiatric nursing from the Virginia Commonwealth University-Medical College of Virginia's School of Nursing.

"Encourager of the Year" was the award presented to Sister Kathleen McCarthy, S.J., earlier this month by parishioners of St. Anne's Church in Palmyra. Sister Kate has been the parish's director of religious education for the past eight years.

"The number of young lives she has influenced by her encouragement is too great to pinpoint," one parishioner wrote. "The number of parishioners she has encouraged to grow is one of God's secrets, for statistics such as these are not compiled here on earth."

In Sister's honor, St. Anne's Religious Education Center prayer chapel was rededicated as the Sister Kate McCarthy Chapel.

Two new members have been elected to the Board of Trustees of Nazareth College of Rochester. The elections of Raymond F. LeChase and Fred E. Strauss were announced by college president Rose Marie Beston, and the Hon. Emmett J. Schnepf, New York State Supreme Court associate justice and chairman of Nazareth's Board of Trustees.

LeChase, a Brighton resident, is chairman of the board of LeChase Inc. and Spar Steel Buildings Inc., and president and chairman of LeChase Realty Corp., LeChase Manor Inc. and R.S.P. Realty Corp.

A Greece resident and alumnus of Aquinas Institute, Strauss is regional president of Manufacturers Hanover, N.A. He is also president of Rochester Community Baseball and a board member of the Western Monroe Mental Health Agency.

Students in Julienne Palma's Advanced Placement English classes at Our Lady of Mercy High School recently enjoyed readings by five actors from the Dublin Production of "Waiting for Godot." Chris O'Neill (Vladimir), Johnny Murphy (Estragon), Vincent O'Neil (Pozzo), John Dunne (Lucky) and Liam Everett (Boy) impressed Mercy students with their friendliness as well as their performance.

The play, presented at Nazareth College during November, was produced by John Everett, who in his high school days participated in musicals at Mercy.

Nazareth Academy senior Deborah Carmen has been named a finalist in the 1985 High School Chemistry Contest. She scored in the top 10 percent among 230 students in a six-county region who participated in the contest by taking an exam last May.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Carmen, she plans to attend major in nuclear engineering at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute next fall.

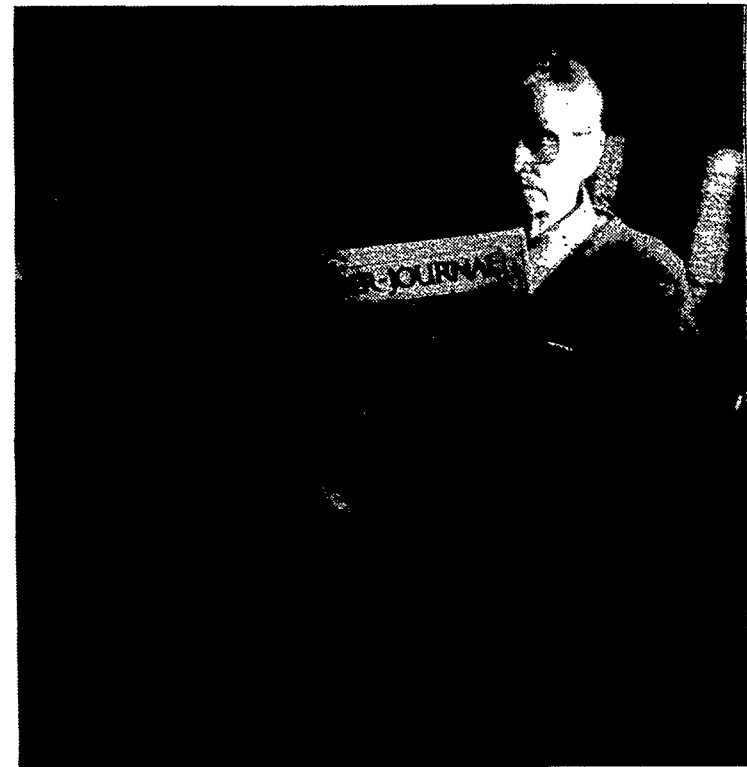

Two Basilian fathers familiar to the Rochester area celebrated their 50th anniversaries of ordination last month at St. Basil's Church in Toronto. Father Ernest P. Magee and Father Raymond L. Prince were honored along with two other jubilarians.

Father Magee was principal and superior of Aquinas Institute from 1955 to 1961. Father Prince, a native of Windsor, Ontario, taught at Aquinas from 1939 to 1973 except 1963-65, when he served as rector of La Maison Saint-Basile in Paris.

The editor-in-chief was a little nervous, but Rich Little put her at ease. Patricia Riedman, editor of Our Lady of Mercy High School's student newspaper, interviewed comedian Rich Little before his performance in Rochester November 17. He treated her to an off-the-cuff imitation of Jack Nicholson and admitted he was nervous about cleaning up his act to perform before the many nuns in the audience. Proceeds from the show benefitted the Sisters of Mercy Founders Club.

For Your Ad To Be Read, The Newspaper Must Be Read!

When your customers read the articles in the Courier-Journal, chances are they will read the ads too.

If the newspaper they are scanning does not hold their attention, your ad will slip by unnoticed as well.

Based on a McGraw Hill readership survey, the Courier-Journal subscriber has been reading our paper, for 14.6 years, and most of those same subscribers spend an average of nearly 45 minutes reading a typical issue of the Courier Journal. What's more, 87% of all Courier-Journal subscribers spent at least some time looking through, or reading at least 3 out of the last 4 issues of the Courier-Journal they had received.

This year, spend your advertising dollars wisely; consider the Courier-Journal when making your media selection and reach over 100,000 readers weekly.

With facts and figures like those above, it's no wonder the ads get read too!

The Courier-Journal
114 S. Union St., Rochester, N.Y. 14607
(716) 454-7050