Cannon, a Geneva attorney, will coordinate solicitations in the areas of industry and finance.

A member of the Happiness House Board of Directors, the corporate board of Geneva

General Hospital and a director of the Seneca Youth Hockey Association, Cannon moved to Geneva in 1975 from Washington, D.C., where he worked in the general council office of the Veteran's Administration.

Profession and service organizations will be the province of Dr. Rynn. A graduate of Bishop Kearney High School and St. John Fisher University, Rynn moved his private practice to Geneva from Rochester in 1983.

Sullivan, a 1952 DeSales graduate and DeSales fund campaign veteran, will head the business and special friends divisions.

A member-at-large of the Geneva City Council, Sullivan earned a nursing degree from St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester. She has worked as a staff member of the Seneca County Association for Retarded Children in Waterloo and serves on the social ministry committee of St. Stephen's Parish.
