

Sisters of St. Joseph celebrate 60th, 70th anniversaries

A special Mass at St. Joseph's Convent Infirmary on May 17 marked the jubilee celebrations of five Sisters of St. Joseph. Sisters Martina Marie Wahl and Rose Angela Noonan celebrated 70 years as sisters, while Sisters Agnes Rita Duffy, Margaret Joseph Margrett and Rose Gonzaga Newton celebrated 60 years in the congregation.

The jubilee Mass was celebrated by Father Peter Bayer, infirmary chaplain, with Fathers Raymond Wahl, Gerard Krieg and Donald Murphy concelebrating. Also in attendance were Monsignor Richard Burns, Father Bruce Ammering and Brother Edward Falsey, as well as about 350 relatives, friends and former students of the jubilarians.

Sisters Rose Angela and Martina Marie were received into the Sisters of St. Joseph on April 24, 1916. Sister Rose Angela was born in Geneva and is a former dean of Nazareth College. She also taught in Sacred Heart School, St. Patricks, Seneca Falls, and Nazareth Academy.

Sister Martina Marie was born in Rochester. She taught at St. Francis Xavier School and Nazareth Academy, and also served as principal of St. Anne's School.

The 60th jubilarians — Sisters Margaret Joseph, Agnes Rita and Rose Gonzaga — were received into the congregation on July 8, 1926. Sister Margaret Joseph is a native of Rochester and has taught at a number of diocesan schools: St. Ambrose; Our Lady of Perpetual Help; St. Patrick's Girls' Home; Blessed Sacrament; St. Mary's, Elmira; St. Francis Xavier; Holy Apostles; and St. Mary's, Auburn. She was also principal of St. Joseph's School in Wayland.

Sister Rose Gonzaga is a native of Corning. She also taught at many schools throughout the diocese: St. John's, Spencerport; St. Mon-
