Gayle M. Kelly has been appointed training coordinator at St. Joseph's Villa of Rochester. She will assist in developing training programs and resources for staff members to enhance their skills and job performance.

Prior to joining the villa staff, Kelly worked with a Department of Social Services training program conducted by Cornell University. She developed curricula, wrote for publications and organized training programs across the state.

A Fairport resident, she has earned a master's degree in education from SUNY Albany and a bachelor's degree in sociology from the SUNY College at Oswego.

Gregory J. Reese, a 1985 graduate of Cardinal Mooney High School, has been appointed to the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs. Reese, the son of Mary E. Reese of Greece, and a parishioner at Mother of Sorrows Church, has also been honored with the Veterans of Foreign Wars Award, which is among the highest honors a cadet can receive.

He has recently completed his freshman year at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy where he studied on an Air Force scholarship. On July 1, he will report to the Air Force Academy, where he will major in astronautical engineering. When he graduates in 1990, he will be commissioned a second lieutenant.

At Cardinal Mooney, Reese was chosen valedictorian of his senior class and was a member of the National Honor Society. He also earned varsity letters in track and cross-country.

Mark Ouweleen, a graduate of McQuaid Jesuit High School and a senior in Georgetown University's College of Arts and Sciences, has received the 1986 Outstanding Student Award from the university's Office of Student Affairs.

Ouweleen, the son of Virginia Ouweleen of Rochester and the late William F. Ouweleen, was recognized for his service, participation and leadership in student activities. He has served as president of the university's Student Association and was a member of the Student Activities Committee, which determines budgets for student clubs. From 1983-85, he worked as a disc jockey for the campus radio station, WGTB. Ouweleen also sang with Georgetown Chimes, the university's all-male a/capella singing group.

Nine second graders — including two sets of twins — who attend St. Mary's Church in downtown Rochester received Holy Communion for the first time in services at the church on Sunday, May 11. As part of their preparation for first Communion, the children created banners to show what the Eucharist means to them. Given blank banners at the beginning of preparation classes, the children decorated them to represent how they feel the Eucharist has transformed them. Shown above holding their banners are, left to right: Ben Zukowski, Tim Liebert, Jonathan Hardy, Heidi Liebert, Marylu Wojciechowski, Jadrien Ovmoymer, Ted Harkness and Michael and Joseph Driscoll.

has announced that Christopher Schaeffer, a junior at McQuaid Jesuit High School has been chosen for the institute's Summer Research Participation Program.

The son of Dr. and Mrs. James Schaeffer of Penfield, Schaeffer is one of 40 students selected from a field of more than 300 to participate in the program. Winners were selected based on academic performance, an essay and areas of interest. Each student will work with an investigator who is conducting research in the student's specified area of interest.

St. Philip Neri Women's Club has chosen Helen Mercurio as this year's May Queen. The church organist for 50 years, Mercurio has been active in parish council and has chaired the liturgy committee.

Seventeen Nazareth Academy juniors and seniors were inducted into the National Honor Society in a traditional candlelight ceremony late last month.

Parents of the students presented them with pins and a lighted candle. Dr. Barbara Mitrano, the school's assistant principal for curriculum, then spoke to the group, encouraging the new members to strive for excellence. "Women should use their gifts to transform the arena in which they find themselves," she said.

Newly inducted members are: Mary Burkwit, Maureen Casselman, Mary Lynn Dandrea, Melanie Davis, Christine Foley, Kathleen Gomes, Christine Horton, Katy Klensk, Diana Jaffarian, Kerry Lum, Patricia Marcaida, Kristy Parks, Sharon Samperi, Grace Tillinghost, Cynthia Yantz and Sara Young.
