

Camp Stella Maris to host reunion for camp counselors

Former counselors will return to Camp Stella Maris for a reunion on Tuesday, July 8. Reunion activities will begin with a golf tournament at Lima Country Club at 11:30 a.m. Counselors will also have the opportunity to visit the camp, located on Conesus Lake.

Another reunion highlight will be a dinner at the Beachcomber Restaurant, located at 1451 W. Lake Rd. in Geneseo. Cocktails will be served at 6:30 p.m., followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m.

The entry fee for the golf tournament is $17. Dinner is $10. Former counselors will also have the opportunity to purchase a commemorative Camp Stella Maris t-shirt for $10.

For information on the reunion, call (716)346-2243.

U.S. Pilgrim Virgin statue to arrive in Rochester soon

Local parishes will welcome and be hosts to the National Pilgrim Virgin statue on its tour of the East Coast during the month of August. The statue is one of several which are circulated in areas around the world. Blessed by Pope Paul VI in 1967, the statue travels only within the confines of the United States. There are as many as 50 other statues, each designated to a specific country. These statues were originally intended for use as emissaries of peace, and were dedicated by Pope Pius XII

Youth-exchange group seeks homes for foreign students

Youth Exchange Service (YES) is in urgent need of families all over the United States to host teen-age students from Europe, the Far East, Central and South America or Mexico. The 15- to 18-year-old youngsters are scheduled to arrive in August and September for the 1986-87 high school year.

Students are carefully screened; all speak at least some English at time of arrival, have excellent medical insurance and bring their own spending money. Host families are asked to provide a bed and meals and to accept students as members of the family.

For details on hosting an exchange student, contact: Youth Exchange Service, 350 S. Figueroa St., Suite 257-P, Los Angeles, Cal. 90071, or call 1-800-848-2121.

in an effort to promote "a lasting peace among brothers."

Parishes interested in securing a visit by the statue, which will be in the Diocese of Rochester from August 19 to 31, should contact Elaine Beaudrault at (716) 442-4231.

Golf tournament will benefit School of the Holy Childhood

Plans are in the final stages for the inaugural Holy Childhood Ladies' Golf Tournament, set for July 21 at Wildwood Country Club.

According to the event's co-chairwomen, Sue Smith of Brighton and Peggy Fitch of Pittsford, the "response and support of the tournament has been overwhelmingly successful and exciting."

First National Bank of Rochester is the tournament's gold sponsor. Silver sponsors are Dom Critelli Signs, Flamingo Florist, Ontario Plastics, Inc., Pittsford Construction Incorporated and The Arcade Company.

New York Photo Labs has donated its services for team photographs for all entrants. The 128 women golfers will tee off at 9 a.m. The tournament's format is four-woman two-ball best ball. A luncheon will follow.

Funds raised by the tournament will benefit the children's program at the School of the Holy Childhood, Holy Childhood, celebrating its 40th anniversary this year, is a non-denominational, not-for-profit agency that serves mentally retarded children and adults who reside in the greater Rochester area.

Entries are now being accepted on a team basis. For information, call (716) 359-3710.
