Juniors and seniors at St. James Mercy Hospital's School of Nursing got their "stripes" and several were honored with awards at St. Ignatius Loyola Church in Hornell on June 1.

During the annual "Striping Ceremony" students received stripes signifying their advancement to higher levels of study. Fifteen juniors were promoted to senior level, and 15 freshmen moved up to junior level.

Junior Lillza Celi of Hornell received the Hazel Stewart Award, honoring the student "who has demonstrated dedication to the pursuit of a career in nursing and has high scholastic ability." Stewart was a public health nurse in Hornell for 30 years.

Freshman Susan Meade was presented with the Arthur Foreman Award honoring her dedication and conduct "in the best interest of the patient." Foreman's family has sponsored the award in his memory since 1970.

The Reidman Insurance Agency, Inc. scholarship was presented to Sherry Osmin of Canisteo. Freshman Bonnie Jones of Bath and junior Linda Hubbard of Dansville were given the Jan R. Travis Award in recognition of their "kindness to peers" and "respect for individuality."

Sister Mary Rene McNiff, administrator of St. James Mercy Hospital, was elected vice-president of the New York State Catholic Healthcare Council at a meeting recently. Sister Mary Rene has been a participating chief executive officer in the council since 1981 and has served on the executive committee since 1982.

As vice-president, she will serve a two-year term. Her duties will include serving as a member of the finance committee and, in the absence of the president, she will assume the duties of that office.

St. Mary Our Mother School, Horseheads, honored graduates at a ceremony on June 25. The graduates were: Lisa Borja, Patrick Borja, Michael Boulas, Cara Cleveland, Mary Dempsey, Michele Gibson, Katrina Grabowski, Paulette Hayner, Edward Hughes, Lawrence Liotino, Andrew Minch, Kelly Mulliner, Thea Piersimoni, Ann Randall, Tracy Tryall.

Recognized for their outstanding achievement were: overall academic excellence — Lawrence Liotino and Cara Cleveland; mathematics award — Michael Boulas; language arts award — Cara Cleveland; science award — Lawrence Liotino; social studies award — Michele Gibson; Spanish award — Cara Cleveland; community service award — Katrina Grabowski; effort award — Michele Gibson.

Nazareth Academy senior Maureen Monaghan has received a $500 scholarship from the Niagara District Swimming, Inc.

Although Nazareth Academy has neither a swimming team nor pool, Maureen has been a regular competitor with Niagara District Swimming throughout her high school career.

Maureen is also the winner of a New York State Regents Scholarship, as well as scholarships to Hartwick College, St. Bonaventure University and St. Lawrence University. She is the daughter of Edward and Carol Monaghan, of Greece.

Nazareth Academy senior Laura Donner has been selected for the "Politics and Values" program at George Washington University in Washington, D.C. The program introduces students to the inner workings of the American political system. It is open to selected residents of the university who wish to major in politics or related fields. Donner will major in international economics at George Washington University.

A 1986 graduate of Nazareth Academy, Donner also earned a New York State Regents Scholarship. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donner of Rochester.
