Youth group holds meeting; tables available for boutique

St. Ambrose, Rochester — Young people in grades 9-12 are invited to join the parish's new youth group, which held its first meeting August 11. For information, call Paula Penna, (716) 482-0348, or Bill Coffas, 482-7933.

Applications are now being accepted to reserve tables at the parish's sixth-annual Christmas Boutique. A total of 52 tables will be available in Dailey Hall. Eight more will be located in the side hall. For information or an application, call Karen Ostrowski, (716) 288-8384.

Two staffers say goodbye

Corpus Christi, Rochester — Parishioners bid farewell to Kathy Kalin, organist for the past two years, and Father Tom Helfrich, who will study in Toronto for the next year.

Hispanic parishioners are invited to participate in two small adult faith-sharing communities that meet each week — one on Wednesdays at 7 p.m. and the other on Sundays at 6 p.m.

Pilgrimage, picnic scheduled

St. Stanislaus, Rochester — Parishioners plan a pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa in Doylestown, Pa., Saturday and Sunday, September 6 and 7. For information, contact Theresa Kierecki, (716) 266-0533, or Mary Szelag, 467-1437.

The parish's annual family picnic is planned for Sunday, August 24, from 12:30 to 5 p.m. on the parish grounds.

'Fun After 55' club organized at St. Salome's in Rochester

St. Salome, Rochester — St. Salome's Parish has a new, fast-growing club for those 55 and over. The "Fun After 55" group plans such special events as day trips, pot-luck dinners and a Christmas cookie fair. Members of the group encourage parishioners to join them on the fourth Thursday of each month from 1 to 4 p.m. in the Resource Room of the school, 4280 Culver Road, Rochester. The next meeting is scheduled for August 28. Father Albert Delmonte, pastor, is the group's moderator.

Youths plan 'Search Weekend' at Church of the Resurrection

Church of the Resurrection, Rochester — The Youth Group within the parish has scheduled its annual "Search Weekend" for September 5, 6 and 7 at the Rotary Sunshine

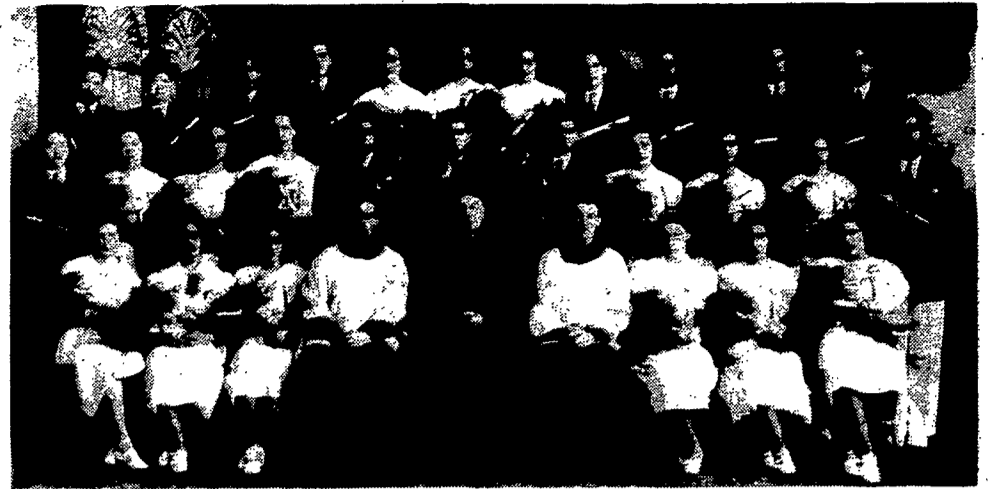

Camp in Rush. Approximately 70 teens will be participating in talks, activities and games designed for spiritual growth and community building, from Friday morning to Sunday afternoon.

For information on the events, call the Parish Center at (716)223-5500.

Parish names music director

Church of the Assumption of Our Lady, Fairport — A new director of music, Kathy Doran-Norton, has been appointed. She will oversee all music for regular and special liturgical celebrations, direct the adult choir and work with the children's choir.

A parishioner for the past three years, Doran-Norton has served as a cantor and has assisted with children's liturgy and kindergarten celebrations.

St. Patrick alumni to gather

Alumni from the last graduating class of St. Patrick's Elementary School, formerly on North Plymouth Avenue, are invited to relive childhood memories and test their predictions of the future at a 50th-year reunion. Interested members of the class of 1937 are asked to contact Bess DePeters, (716) 266-2720, Peter Gagliardi, 266-8844, or Peter Ciaccia, 482-8142.

The church and school were closed after the property was purchased by Eastman Kodak in 1937 for expansion.

Southern Tier

Council names new member; seeks teachers for religious ed

Our Lady of Lourdes, Elmira — A new member has been appointed to parish council. Ed Netski will replace Bill DiBerardino, who resigned in July because of other commitments. Netski, who had the next highest number of votes in the parish council election last year, will serve the remaining two years of DiBerardino's term.

The parish is grateful for the services of seven religious education teachers who have volunteered for the coming year. Three are still needed for grades four, six and eight.

Spaghetti, spaghetti sauce and fruit cocktail are always needed for the Free Kitchen. Please leave donations at the Demarest Parkway entrance to the church.

Couples asked to sign up now

Immaculate Conception, Ithaca — Engaged couples are reminded to sign up now for a pre-Cana session Saturday, September 20, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Call (607) 273-6121 to register.

Parish seeks administrator, religious education teachers

St. Patrick, Corning — Women of the parish are invited to a Women's Retreat at Notre Dame Retreat House, Canandaigua, from Friday, September 5 to Sunday, September 7. For information, contact Rose Parrish, (607) 962-1376 or Mary Rice, 937-5700.

The parish is seeking "spirit-filled," self-motivated candidates for the position of part-time administrator. Responsibilities include maintenance, rental property management, building and grounds upkeep and day-to-day operations. Retirees and housewives are encouraged to apply at the parish office.

Teachers are also needed to bring the love of the Lord to young people through the parish religious education program. Contact Anna Black, (607) 936-3163, for information.

Finger Lakes

Priests honored at social

St. Bernard's, Scipio Center — Parishioners and guests from Auburn and Moravia welcomed Father Clarence W. Gardner at a Mass and coffee hour Sunday, August 10. Father Gardner, who recently retired as pastor of St. Alphonsus in Auburn, is now living at St. Bernard's rectory and will celebrate weekday Masses and visit the sick of the parish.

He and Father Robert J. Downs, pastor of St. Bernard's and of St. Patrick's in Moravia, concelebrated the Mass on August 10. The coffee hour, sponsored by the Rosary society, honored both priests.

Latchkey project wins grant

St. Anne's, Palmyra — The parish Latchkey Program is one of four Rochester-area organizations that have received grants from the State Department of Social Services School-age Child Care Program. St. Anne's will receive $8,689, which is designated for project start-up costs. All four projects, along with 59 others throughout the state, will care for children who need supervision before or after school hours while their parents are working.

New Mass schedule planned

Cayuga Team Ministry — A new Mass Schedule will go into effect the weekend of September 6 and 7. All liturgical ministers will be contacted to determine their preferences.
