Three Urban League Black Scholars have been awarded grants to study at Nazareth College this fall.

They are: Pamela M. McLeod, Evonya M. Daniels, and Mary Blake. All three are 1986 graduates of Rochester-area high schools and have maintained at least a "B" average.

McLeod, the daughter of William and Vera McLeod, is a graduate of Edison

Technical and Occupational Education Center. She plans to study graphic design this fall.

A graduate of Pittsford-Sutherland High School, Daniels will study accounting. She is the daughter of Gloria E. Daniels.

Blake, a graduate of Nazareth Academy, is the daughter of Carl and Sarah Lee Blake. She will major in biochemistry and biology.

Holy Spirit Missionary Sister Rita Kraft marked her golden jubilee at the order's Illinois motherhouse August 10.

A Rochester native, Sister Rita attended Immaculate Conception and Holy Family schools, and graduated from Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Several family members and friends from Rochester attended the celebration, which included Mass offered by Father William Trott, a cousin of Sister Rita's and pastor of St. Augustine's Church, Rochester. A reception followed.

For the past 40 years, Sister Rita has taught in schools throughout the U.S. Currently, she serves as sacristan at the motherhouse.

Ann Frey, a social studies teacher at Cardinal Mooney High School, has received a 1986 Fulbright Summer Seminar grant to study in the Netherlands.

Frey is one of only 18 educators nationwide chosen for the three-and-a-half-week program. During her trip, the Brockport resident will study the history, culture and society of the Netherlands.
