New Fisher president to speak on college students and values

St. Mary, Rochester — The Downtown Community forum, sponsored by St. Mary's Church, is launching its second annual luncheon lecture series on Thursday, September 25, when Dr. William Pickett, new president at St. John Fisher College, will speak.

Hilton parish to devote grotto

St. Leo, Hilton — The parish will be dedicating its newly constructed grotto in honor of Mary on Sunday, September 28 at 4:30 p.m. The marble statue of Our Lady is six feet tall and weighs approximately 1,000 pounds. The adult and children choirs will participate in the ceremonies, along with the Knights of Columbus Color Guard. An outdoor tent to accommodate the anticipated large crowd will be set up in the Meditation Garden. Father Julian Phelam will give the sermon, and a buffet reception will follow the dedication.

Parish roasts pig in the park

St. Bridget, Rochester — The church Roof Committee is sponsoring a pig roast on Saturday, October 4 from noon until 10 p.m. at Genesee Valley Park, pavilion #1. The cost is $15 for adults and $3 for children under 12. Tickets are available at the church and can be obtained by calling (716)454-4236.

Spaghetti supper, auction to help St. Salome's School

St. Salome, Rochester — St. Salome's School parents are sponsoring a spaghetti supper and auction on Saturday, October 4, at 6 p.m. Proceeds from the event, which will take place at St. Salome's School Hall, 4280 Culver Rd., in Rochester, will benefit St. Salome's School.

The cost per ticket will be $3.75 for adults and $2 for children under 10 years of age. Tickets may be purchased at the school or by calling (716)544-6025 or 342-4323.

Vol. 97, No. 49 September 25, 1986

Courier-Journal (USPS 135-580)

Published weekly except week after July 4 and Christmas, by the Rochester Catholic Press Association. Subscription rates: Single copy 35¢. One-year subscription in U.S. $15. Canada and Foreign $20. Offices: 1150 Buffalo Rd., Rochester, N.Y. 14624, (716) 328-4340. Second Class Postage paid at Rochester, N.Y. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to Courier-Journal, 1150 Buffalo Rd., Rochester, N.Y. 14624.

In one of his first public speaking engagements since assuming his duties, Dr. Pickett will speak on the topic of "College Students and Contemporary Values."

The lectures take place at the Rochester Plaza Ballroom 1 in downtown Rochester, from noon until 1:30 p.m. Tickets are $10 and may be reserved by calling the church rectory at (716)232-7140.

The luncheon will be served at noon, followed by Pickett's lecture. A time set aside for questions and answers concludes the program.

There will be four luncheon/lectures throughout the 1986-87 season, in addition to the weekly "Life after Five" programs, "Conversations: Faith and the Marketplace," and scripture study courses.

The parish has chosen "The Gospel of Matthew" for the third in its series of scripture study offerings. The sessions run each Monday from September 22 to November 17 (except October 14) from 12:10 to 12:50 p.m., or four Monday evenings November 10 to December 1, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Court to host dinner, Mass

St. Ambrose, Rochester — "The Lady of the Cenacle" court will host this year's Bishop's Luncheon on September 27 at noon. Celebrated by Bishop Matthew H. Clark, the Mass will be held at St. Philip Neri Church, 1776 Clifford Ave., Rochester. Lunch will follow at the Knights of Columbus in Webster. Call (716)544-1871 for tickets.

Church receives invitation; Sanctuary celebration nears

Corpus Christi, Rochester — The congregation of the First Reformed Church on Main Street has invited parishioners to join them in a joint worship service on Sunday, October 5. The day marks their annual "World-Wide Communion Sunday," a day when they pray about world hunger and world unity.

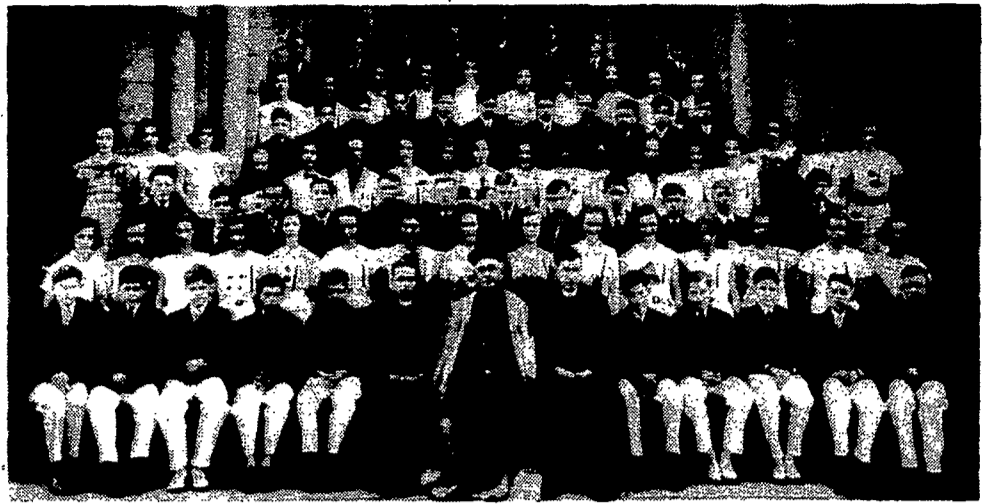

They also expressed interest in supporting Dimitry House in helping feed the poor of the city of Rochester. Since the First Reformed Church holds a 10 a.m. service and Corpus Christi has one at 11 a.m., a 10:30 a.m. Mass will be arranged for October 5. Details still need to be worked out by members of both church.

People from all over the country will gather in Washington, D.C., for a sanctuary celebration from September 26-29. The high point of the weekend will be September 28 when a march in support of sanctuary and in opposition to the administration's current Central American policy will take place. A free bus will be going to the march from Corpus Christi Church, 864 Main St. E. at Prince St., Rochester. Call Isabel Morrison at (716)325-4000 for information.

The crowd that attends the noon Mass is invited to the 10th annual Noon Mass luncheon on Tuesday, October 7, right after the Mass. This is a free lunch, so come out and enjoy.
