Day of discovery, reflection for adult children of alcoholics

Corpus Christi, Rochester — The parish is sponsoring a day of discovery and reflection for adult children of alcoholics on Saturday, November 8, 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the Otto Shults Center at Nazareth College.

The day will focus on the struggles children who have grown up in alcoholic homes take into their adult lives. Some of the issues to be explored include expressing one's feelings, various roles that children of alcoholics fall into, and how to begin to live life in a healthier and happier manner.

Those interested in attending the program may call (716)325-2424 to register.

The volunteers of the Corpus Christi Center, 142 Webster Ave., invite all parishioners to come celebrate five years of service at an open house on Saturday, October 25, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. The center is now providing health care for approximately 3,000 people as well as a number of support groups for parishioners. Anyone interested in the gala can stop in for a nutritious snack and have your blood pressure checked.

There will be a parish meeting on Sunday, October 26, at 12:30 p.m. The meeting will consist of a report by 10 parishioners who recently conducted an evaluation of the church and rectory buildings and property. Please join the members in charge of this venture so you will have a voice in future plans.

Healing service this weekend

St. Theodore, Rochester — Father Edward McDonough will conduct a healing service at the church, 168 Spencerport Road, Rochester on Thursday, October 23; Friday, October 24; and Saturday, October 25. The services will take place at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, and 1 p.m. on Saturday.

The Redemptorist priest from the Archdiocese of Boston drew more than 1,000 people to each of two healing services in Rochester Catholic churches.

All are welcome to attend.

Halloween costume ball set

Blessed Sacrament, Rochester — The Halloween costume ball is coming on Friday, October 31. All those 18 and over are invited to come together from 9 to 1 a.m. for a haunting evening of costumes, music and dance.

'Design Day' for playground

Holy Ghost, Rochester — The parish has set October 28 as "Design Day" for its new playground. The day is the first of a three-phase process toward the construction of a new playground. Bob Leathers, an architect who specializes in creative playgrounds, will be at the school all day working on the design with the children. Everyone in the community is invited to a presentation by Leathers at 7:30 p.m. in the hall, 230 Coldwater Road, Rochester.

The playground committee is currently working on several fund raisers. Dine-a-Mate books may be obtained for $15 by calling the school at (716) 247-4156. The committee is also conducting a continuous bottle and can drive. Anyone wishing to donate bottles and cans may place them in a container in the front of the school.

On Saturday, November 22, the playground committee and the Sacred Heart Society are sponsoring a holiday craft show in the hall from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Parishioners interested in any of the fund raisers or who would like to work on any phase of the playground effort, are asked to call either John Piarulli at 247-1314 or the school at 247-4156.
