converted all five of its penalty shots in the second shootout to beat Mendon at Wayne Central on Tuesday night, October 25.

The fourth-seeded Kings and Mendon both notched four shots in the first shootout, after both teams played through two 40-minute halves, two 10-minute overtimes and two more five-minute sudden-death overtimes before the game was decided in the second shootout.

Ralph Braun was the hero for Schuber's squad as he tallied the clinching kick.

Third-year coach Emilio Monti's squad has earned the right to play Arcadia by blanking Livonia 3-0, behind goalie Mike Compisi, who was named defensive player of the game. Arcadia will be looking to avenge a 1-0 loss to the Little Irish earlier in the season.

The Little Irish, 13-7-1, won their first sectional soccer title ever thanks to goals by Rod Encina, Gary Barsell and Jeff Mucias.

Encina's goal came late in the first half, and the Little Irish padded the lead with two goals in the second 40 minutes.

Aquinas advanced to the sectional final by shutting out Attica 3-0.

Coach Patsy Tata's dream of bringing his No. 15 seeded Lady Fighting Kings to the Class AA girls' final were dashed when No. 6 Greece Arcadia defeated his girls 3-0.

Coach Ted Hershey's squad scored three goals in the first 20 minutes, and never looked back against Kearney, which finished the season 5-10-3, after beating No. 2 Victor and No. 10 Midlakes to reach the semifinal game.

Senior Michelle Hulbert and winger Sandy Clementi did the damage for Arcadia, which hadn't allowed a goal in its four games previous to Kearney. Hulbert scored twice, and was aided by Clementi's one goal and one assist.

Just days earlier against MaryBeth Moore's Aquinas squad, Clementi had single-handedly beaten the Little Irish by scoring three goals, which were her first tallies of the season.

Arcadia tied Pittsford-Mendon, 2-2, in the Class AA final game. The Vikings beat rival Pittsford-Sutherland 1-0 in the game previous to the Arcadia-Kearney contest at Hilton.
