Edwin J. Wegman has been named honorary chairman of Cardinal Mooney High School's Silver Anniversary Campaign. The board chairman of Lissow-Wegman Home and Commercial Builders, Wegman served as the first president of the school's Men's Guild from 1962-64. Currently, seven of his 27 grandchildren attend Cardinal Mooney.

Heading the Alumni Parents Division of the campaign are Eleanor Beattie and Anne Shoniker. Both have been leaders in the school's Women's Guild and have had children enrolled at Mooney since 1963.

A 1972 Cardinal Mooney graduate and associate with the law firm of Woods, Oviatt, Gilman, Sturman and Clarke, Louis M. D'Amato, will lead the Estate Planning Division of the campaign.

The Silver Anniversary Campaign aims to raise $1.1 million during the next five months as part of a five-year development plan.

Nazareth Academy senior Cynthia Yantz has been chosen as one of New York state's Congressional Scholars and will participate in the National Young Leaders' Conference next month in Washington, D.C.

Along with 1,500 other high school students from around the country chosen for their leadership potential, she will spend a week meeting with government officials, members of Congress and the diplomatic corps, journalists and prominent scholars. Students will also attend a presentation on the floor of the House of Representatives and a White House briefing.

At Nazareth, Yantz is editor of the school newspaper and a member of the "Brain stormers" team. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Yantz of Rochester, she has participated in Nazareth's honors program for four years.

Twenty-seven graduates of St. Monica's School Class of 1936 celebrated their 50th Reunion in October with a Mass and dinner.

Father Robert Gaudio, pastor at St. Monica's, celebrated the Mass and Sister Lorraine Julien, pastoral assistant and a former teacher at the school, gave the homily.

Afterward, more than 50 alumni and guests gathered at the Mapledale Party House. Among the special guests were former teachers and pastors, including Sister Marie Therese and Father Gerald Dunn.

Lucille McMahon McGinnis traveled all the way from Miami, Fla., for the occasion, and Dorothy and Dick St. James came from Brevard, N.C. Identical twins Jean Shire (Sister Marie Adelaide) and Joan Shire Huss were also present, still looking very much alike.

Of 85 students who graduated in 1936, 16 have died and only 15 were not located. Members of the planning committee were: Coral Conner; Ed McMahon; John Noble; Walter Peer; and Jo Albert.

Our Lady of the Genesee, Council 4812, Knights of Columbus, chose new officers for 1986/87 at a meeting in September.

Installed were: Theodore Mooney, grand knight; Dennis Cody, deputy grand knight; Robert Juif, financial secretary; Thomas Mackey, treasurer; William Doerr, advocate; William Robinson, warden; George Burke, trustee; Joseph Quagliata, Thomas McEvoy and John McLoughlin, guards.

Council 4812 sponsors a variety of service programs for youth, and needy as well as social and recreational events for members. For more information about membership, contact Dennis Cody, (716)334-5922, or Bill Robinson, 533-1665.

Governor Mario M. Cuomo has announced that two Rochester residents, Father David Mura and Nelli Louise Mitchell, have been reappointed to the Monroe Developmental Center's Board of Visitors.

For more than a dozen years, Father Mura has served on the board and has been involved with the needs and concerns of patients. His new term will expire in December, 1989.

Dr. Mitchell is the director of training in child psychiatry and a supervising psychiatrist for the Rochester Psychiatric Center. She will serve until December, 1988.

Local artist and art teacher Jean VanApeldoorn has illustrated the ideas of St. Joseph's School, Penfield, in the building's foyer, thanks to a suggestion from Sister Nancy Kelly, RSM, principal.

The new mural shows children of all countries hand-in-hand around the globe. Pictured in the globe is a small drawing of St. Joseph's School.

Sister Nancy explained that she wanted people to see what the school is about when they enter the building. Through donations and activities, she said, St. Joseph's students reach out to the needy, both locally and throughout the world all during the year.

Eleven-year-old Erika Eichelberger has won the Intermediate Ladies' Silver Medal at the North American Figure Skating Championships in Morristown, N.J. held November 12-15. A sixth-grader at St. Pius X School in Chili, Eichelberger is a member of the Genesee Valley Figure Skating Club.

The North Atlantic Championship is a regional competition which includes skaters from New York, New Jersey and parts of Pennsylvania. As the North Atlantic silver medalist, Eichelberger is now eligible to compete in the Eastern Figure Skating Championships in Alexandria, Va., in December.

Outreach programs at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish are $3,000 richer this month thanks to the proceeds of the Webster Knights of Columbus' 19th Annual Charity Ball. More than 200 persons attended the ball November 8 at the Genesee Plaza Holiday Inn.

For more than 70 years, Mount Carmel has been a haven to immigrants and the needy. Currently the parish sponsors programs ranging from a soup kitchen to a used clothing and furniture store, to low-income housing in the former parish school.

At the ball, Grand Knight Richard M. McHale presented a check to Father James Hewes, pastor, and to outreach coordinators Sister M. Regis Straughn, RSM, and Victor Bartolotta Jr.

Nine men and women graduated from the diocesan Supervisory and Leadership Training Program (SALT) at the conclusion of their final workshop November 13 at Stella Maris Retreat Center in Skaneateles. Certified to supervise interns in church ministry programs are: Father Bruce Ammering; Sister Joan Cawley; Marge Coppola; Sister Virginia Mahaney; Sister Judy Morgan; Sister Brigid Quinn; Sister Roberta Rodenhouse; Gloria Ultrio; and Mary Jo Smith. This year's class was the first to include women.

Students who raised $5,100 in the Catholic School Marathon last month at St. Mary's School in Waterloo were honored with prizes at an awards assembly recently.

Students in nursery school through grade 3 who raised the most money in the school's mini-marathon were: Sara Brainard, Tim Boise, Jennifer Noreott, Matt Marsh and Jamie Lent.

Raising the top amounts in their respective grades were: Brittany Miller, Matthew Sheppard and Adam Montag, preschool; Robby DeLamarter and Laurie Young, kindergarten; Tim Boise, first grade; Sara Brainard, second grade, and David Bienvenue, third grade.

Awards were also presented to the following students in grades 4-8 who participated in the marathon: Michael Felber, Chris Dendis, John Vasella, Tim Wadhams and Anthony Ard.

Those who raised the most in their individual grades were: Tim Wadhams, fourth; Anthony Ard, fifth; Renee Bird, sixth; Chris Dendis, seventh; and Mike Felber, eighth.

Mrs. Kise's second grade class collected the highest total of pledges. Mrs. Agrasto, who teaches nursery school, was also recognized for her hard work.

Mrs. Keiffer's sixth-grade class brought in the most money, while Mr. Mulvey's eighth graders were honored for 100 percent participation.

Three Rochester men were among more than 200 nationwide who participated in the Glenmary Home Missioners Summer Volunteer Program.

Darrin McBride and Pete Zaepfel of St. Pius the Tenth Parish in Rochester and Louis DeCarolis of Most Precious Blood Parish spent the summer near Vanceburg, Ky., building a two-bedroom home for a widow and renovating a shelter for battered women. Volunteers also visited a local health care center.

A society of priests and brothers striving to bring justice to the poor of rural America, the Glenmary Home Missioners sponsor volunteer experiences for single, Catholic men of college age or older year-round. For more information, contact the Glenmary Home Missioners, Box 46518, Cincinnati, Ohio, 46246-5618.
