Wolcott students celebrate hope, peace at Christmas

Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity — All the students in grades one through eight participated in a Jesse Tree celebration at St. Mary Magdalene on December 21. Under the direction of Agnes Burlee, religious education coordinator, the students made ornaments representing Jesus' family tree and ornaments representing hope and peace. During Mass, all the children came forward to sing "The Jesse Tree" and then placed ornaments on the tree. Immediately after Mass, the children's Christmas party was held in the church basement. At that time, all of the middle-school children received a Bible from the parish. This will become a yearly event.

The fifth-grade students also presented Father Robert G. Smith with a beautiful "Joy to the World" banner, which they made under the direction of Mrs. Gloria Critchfield, the fifth-grade teacher at St. Mary Magdalene.

Mother-daughter brunch set at St. Michael's in Union Springs

Cayuga Team Ministry — The St. Michael's Women's Guild will be sponsoring a "Mother-Daughter" Sunday brunch at noon on January 11 in the Gould Hotel in Seneca Falls. All mothers and daughters from the four churches are invited to attend. Call (315) 889-5423 or 889-5184 for reservations. The cost is $7.95 per person.

The King Ferry/Aurora Men's Club will meet for brunch at the Triangle Restaurant after the noon Mass on Sunday, January 18.

Antioch retreat for young adults offered at Ithaca Nature Center

Catholic Communities of St. Gregory/St. Anne — An Antioch Retreat is being offered for young adults who are out of high school, up to age 30. The retreat will take place April 3 through April 5, at the Cayuga Nature Center in Ithaca.

The cost is $35, and applications can be obtained by contacting Kelly Brennan after 5 p.m. at (716) 381-3997.

Parish needs several drivers for new Gad-a-bout service

St. Catherine of Siena, Ithaca — Seven people in the parish are interested in using St. Catherine of Siena's Gad-a-bout bus for transportation to Mass. The parish must now find four or five drivers who are willing to drive once a month. Drivers must take a six-hour course to learn how to operate the bus and normal safety measures of loading and unloading. The course is offered two evenings a month for three hours per session at BOCES.

Any man or woman with a valid N.Y. State driver's license is eligible, and there are no upper age limits. A simple road test will be administered after the course is completed. Call the rectory at (607) 257-2493 or 257-7306 to volunteer.

Baptism Session scheduled at Immaculate Conception

Immaculate Conception, Ithaca — The next evening session for expectant parents and parents of babies not yet baptized will be February 11 at 7:15 p.m. in room 108 of the school. Parents are encouraged to attend the session prior to the birth of their babies. Please call the rectory at (607) 273-6121 to register for the February session. Attendance is necessary for baptism at Immaculate Conception.

Charismatic Mass slated at St. Cecilia's in Elmira

St. Cecilia, Elmira — A Charismatic Mass will be held on Friday, January 9, at 7:30 p.m. in the church, 950 Lake St., Elmira. Prayers for healing will follow.

All are welcome.
