Rochester Sisters of Mercy welcomed 11 new Associates this month — six in Santiago, Chile, and five in the Rochester area. Mercy Associates are either married or single women who are committed in a one-year covenant relationship to the congregation for the purpose of sharing prayer, community, and/or ministry. Associates' covenants may be renewed for any number of years.

The five new Mercy Associates in Rochester are: Nancy Aspenleiter, associated with St. Rita's community, Webster, and Matt Talbot ministries at St. Augustine's; Joanne Hoffman, associated with St. Andrew's community, school and parish; Mary Jones, associated with St. Charles community and active at the Mercy Prayer Center and in clown ministry; Kathy LaForce, associated with the North St. community; Kathy Riley, associated with the North Street community and active at the Andrew Center and Melita House.

Names of the Chilean Associates were not yet available.

Cardinal Mooney High School's Class of 1990 this month elected class officers following a week of campaign activities. Each of the 14 candidates explained their qualifications to voters during an election assembly. Brother Lawrence Atkinson, CSC, served as moderator for the election and seniors John P. Bell III and Mary Keefer volunteered as freshman ambassadors of the campaign.

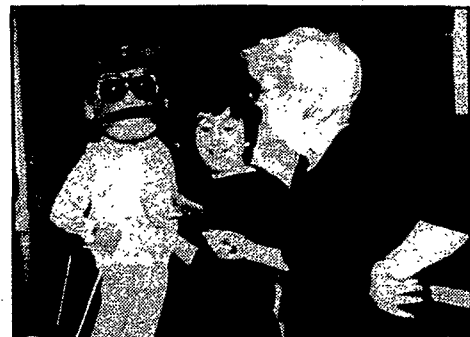

Elected were: president, Kevin Caruso, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Caruso of Gates; vice president, James Shoniker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Shoniker of Gates; secretary, Frank Valente, son of Marie Valente of Gates; and treasurer, Anthony Rossi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Rossi of Spencerport.

Pre-school students at St. Charles Borromeo School in Greece began preparing for the Christmas season by sharing their time, talents and resources with others at Thanksgiving.

Youngsters decorated empty coffee cans and brought them home. With help from parents, they cooked up homemade goodies to fill the cans, which were then used as offertory gifts at the Thanksgiving Prayer Service. Later, the cans were distributed among the parish's senior citizens.

Sister Dolores Ann Stein, principal at St. Ann's School in Hornell, was among six school administrators honored this month by the Steuben-Allegany School Library System as "Principal Friend of the Library."

The award salutes area administrators for their support of school library programs.

Reynaldo, a blind puppet, and Red Cross volunteers Pat Bradt and Edith Lobb visited St. Margaret Mary School to help students understand disabilities.

Third graders at St. Margaret Mary School in Irondequoit made some new friends last month. Reynaldo is blind, Mandy is deaf and Mark has cerebral palsy.

All three were puppets who visited the school to teach students about disabilities. The puppets are part of the "Kids Project" presented by volunteers Pat Bradt and Edith Lobb and sponsored by the American Red Cross.

Two dozen students from St. Joseph's School in Penfield have been chosen as members of the Nazareth College youth and junior high choirs.

A total of 90 students from area schools sing with the college's Youth Choir and 20 participate in the Junior Choir. Both groups are directed by Charles Witmer, who also serves as a voice faculty member.

Youth choir members from St. Joseph's are: Kevin Axx, Allison Baird, Laura Batt,

PRIESTS IMPRISONED!

Will You Help?

Dozens of elderly priests like Father Thomas Tao are still imprisoned in the People's Republic of China. Now in their 70's and 80's, these brave men have been jailed for the past 30 years. Their only "crime" is to be devout Christians in a land where atheism rules with an iron fist. Kept in handcuffs 24 hours a day, many more will die in prison if nothing is done. After a lifetime of service to the Church, don't they deserve our help?
