Cynthia Yantz, a Nazareth Academy senior, has won an $8,000 scholarship to LeMoyne College in Syracuse.

A 1986 Congressional Scholar, she has previously been awarded a New York State Regents Scholarship. At Nazareth, she is a member of the "Brainstormers" team, editor of the school newspaper and a contributing reporter to the Courier-Journal's Echo page. Yantz has also participated in the school's honors program for four years, and is a member of the National Honor Society.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Yantz of Rochester.

Aquinas Institute senior Susan Dely has earned a partial scholarship to Ithaca College, where she plans to major in vocal performance.

A soloist with the Rochester Peace Child Chorus, Dely also performs with the All County and All State Chorus.

While at Aquinas, she has been involved with Drama Club and Choir, as well as recruiting activities and peer ministry. Dely has also been elected to the school's permanent honor roll for maintaining a "B" average over the past four years.

After 13 years of service to St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Holcomb, the Rev. Dr. Thomas L. Hanson has moved to the Episcopal Church Home in Rochester, where he will serve as temporary chaplain.

The Rev. Hanson is a marriage and family counselor at the Catholic Family Center in Rochester.

The Rochester Chapter of Lay Carmelites has elected officers for the current year. They are: Father Jack Healy, O.Carm., chaplain; Joseph Murray, director; Spencer Badger, assistant director; Ann Saraceni, secretary; Jean Cavaleri, treasurer; Dora Vernarelli, liaison; Rhoda May and Veronica Czerniak, instructors.

First-graders at St. Thomas the Apostle School acted out a favorite tale recently as they cooked up "stone soup."

Following the recipe outlined in author Marcia Brown's story, teacher Dianne Sasiadek and her students cleaned the choicest stones they could find and combined them with fresh carrots, onions, potatoes, barley and chicken.

Shown above are Kathleen Blind, Stefanie Tellex, Carrie Sadler, Danny Tuschone and Dylan Brown as they prepared the tasty concoction.

Christ the King students Lisa, Irene, Nadia and Christine Tymczyszyn proudly served coffee and doughnuts to their grandmother, Katherine Ostasz, who visited the school last month for Grandparents Day. Ostasz was among 150 grandparents who attended the celebration.

ROCHESTER SCHOLARS ABROAD — These five members of the Diocese of Rochester are currently working or studying at The American College and the Catholic University of Louvain in Belgium. They are, from left: Brian Jeffers, a first-year seminarian; Sue Roll, former campus minister at Ithaca College now earning a theology degree; Father Frank Loi, vice rector of the college; and Fathers Robert and Richard Belligotti, who are on sabbatical this semester.

Ten students at McQuaid Jesuit High School have been inducted into the National Honor Society. The new members were chosen on the basis of demonstrated leadership, character, scholarship and service.

They are: Aaron Blaakman, Timothy Flynn, Dan O'Mara, David Schickler, and Tim Whelan of Rochester; Devon Kearney, Kevin Scott and William Sullivan of Webster; Keith Nemes of Fairport; and William Bond of Pittsford.

The trustees of St. Bernard's Institute elected Mark Greisberger chairman of the board at their plenary session last month.

An attorney with Greisberger, Zicari, McConville, Cooman, Morin and Welch, PC, he is the son of John Greisberger, who also served as chairman of St. Bernard's board from 1980-83.

Elected during the session to successive terms were: Herbert L. Rees, vice chairman; John Horvath, treasurer; and Judith Waldert, secretary.

Father William Amann, pastor at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Hamlin, welcomed retreat leader Father Dominick McGee, OFM Conv., during Lent. Parishioners at St. Elizabeth, which is among the diocese's newest parishes, celebrated their first parish Mission Renewal Retreat this year.
