

Chase Manhattan VP to address 32nd class at Notre Dame

Edward Shaw, chief general counsel and vice president of Chase Manhattan Bank, will return to his alma mater after a 25-year absence to give the commencement address at Notre Dame High School's 32nd graduation ceremony. Bishop Matthew H. Clark will preside and present diplomas at the ceremony, which is scheduled for 8 p.m. on Friday, June 19, in the school auditorium.

Elizabeth Ann Berliner of Elmira Heights is the valedictorian of the 103-member senior class. She plans to attend Union College, where she will pursue a six-year law and public policy program sponsored in cooperation with Albany Law School. Salutatorian Bethann Lewis of Elmira plans to study veterinary medicine at Hiram College in Ohio.
