Future Golden Eagle

Dan Aspenleiter of Bishop Kearney High School has announced his intention to play football at SUNY College at Brockport this fall. The Golden Eagles will play a 10-game schedule during Coach Ed Matejkovic's second year at the helm.

Aspenleiter was an All-City Catholic player for the Fighting Kings. He is expected to play on the offensive line for Brockport.

During Matejkovic's inaugural year, the Golden Eagles went 4-6, the best record for a football team at Brockport since 1981.

Aspenleiter is the son of Thomas and Nancy Aspenleiter of Hawthorn Place in Webster.

Camps galore

An extensive lineup of summer instructional sports camps is set for Nazareth

College, beginning July 6. This summer's schedule features separate camps for boys' and girls' basketball, co-ed tennis and cheerleading.

The camp schedule opens on July 6, with a basketball day camp for boys ages eight through 18. The camp will be headed by Nazareth men's basketball Coach Mike Daley, who has more than 20 years of hoop camp experience. The day camp will run from July 6 through July 10, with sessions from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The girls' day camp, which will also be directed by Mike Daley, will be held July 13 through July 17, with sessions from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A boys' basketball resident camp will take place from July 19 through July 24. Sessions will take place during both days and evenings.

A shooting camp for boys and girls is scheduled for August 14, 15 and 16. Both the boys' resident camp and the shooting camp will be directed by Daley.

The co-ed tennis camp for ages eight through 16 will run from July 6 through July 10, with daily sessions from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. That camp will be conducted by Nazareth coach Annette Shapiro.

The cheerleading camp — also to be directed by Shapiro — will run from July 27 through July 31, with sessions from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Airshow additions

Camp Good Days and Special Times recently announced several additions to its lineup of static display aircraft at the Genesee Valley Airshow on July 11 and 12, at the Rochester-Monroe County Airport.

The National Warplane Museum in Genesee is planning to send 10 of its vintage warplanes to be displayed at the airshow, which is being held as a benefit for Camp Good Days and Special Times.

Probably the best-known of the warbirds to be displayed is the Boeing B-17 or "Flying Fortress." More than 13,000 of these four-engine, heavy bombers were produced, but only nine are flying today. The B-17 is one of the best-known aircraft ever developed.

The Curtiss P-40 "Warhawk" single-engine fighter will also visit the airshow. Manufactured in Buffalo, P-40s were made famous by the "Flying Tigers" in China, when they flew against the Japanese.

In all, 30 to 40 aircraft will be displayed on the airport grounds for viewing by the public during both days of the airshow.

In addition, the airshow will feature aerobatic performances by the United States Air Force Thunderbirds on July 12, and demonstrations by the Army's Golden Knights parachute team on both July 11 and 12.

Advance sale discount tickets for the airshow — $4 for adults and $2 for adults over 65 and children under 16 — are now available. Tickets at the gate the days of the show will be $5 for adults, and $2.50 for adults over 65 and children under 16.
