preparation for serving on a weekend team. "I can see that it might be a whole new ballgame experiencing BE in that way," she said.

A process for recruiting new leaders someday may be built into the weekend structure, but for now Beginning Experience is struggling to increase awareness among possible participants.

Currently, Beginning Experience is offered four times each year to an average of 12-20 people per session. Father John J. Glogowski, who serves as volunteer chaplain for the group, believes that many more people could benefit. "A lot of the people who might need to know about BE don't," he said. "If word gets out, I think the need is there."

In recent months, members of the board of directors, who are also team leaders, have mounted an extensive effort to increase awareness of the program. They have launched a panel of speakers willing to preach at parishes or speak to other interested groups.

The board has also sent mailings to all diocesan pastors. Not only are they hoping that priests will serve as a source of referrals, but they are also seeking more clerical support for the weekends themselves. At present, Father Glogowski is administering penance and celebrating Mass for all four weekends in addition to his full-time job as director of pastoral care at St. Ann's Home/The Heritage.

For more information about the Beginning Experience speakers' panel or the weekend itself, please call Jean Menaf, (716)233-1094.

Obituaries

Sister Austin Kieran, musician, guidance counselor

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated Tuesday, July 14, for Sister Austin Kieran of the Sisters of St. Joseph. Sister Kieran died in St. Joseph Convent Infirmary on Saturday, July 11, 1987, at the age of 78.

Celebrants for the SSJ motherhouse liturgy were Fathers Walter Cushing and Joseph Donovan, as well as Monsignor William Shannon.

Interment was in the sisters' section of Holy Sepulchre Cemetery on Wednesday, July 15.

A native of Moravia, Sister Kieran moved to Rochester when she was a child. She entered the Sisters of St. Joseph in Rochester in 1927 from St. Augustine's Parish, Rochester. A graduate of Nazareth Academy, Sister Kieran earned a baccalaureate degree from Nazareth College and master's degrees in music from Nazareth and Ithaca colleges. She also attended Eastman School of Music.

Sister Kieran taught at Nazareth Hall, St. Ambrose and St. John the Evangelist in Rochester. In addition to teaching in the music department at Nazareth College for 10 years, the Nazareth Conservatory of Music, Our Lady of Perpetual Help and St. Stanislaus schools in Rochester, she also served as director of residents at Nazareth College for 13 years. The last six years of her career were spent in the guidance department at Nazareth Academy.

Sister Kieran retired in 1979 due to ill health. She remained at Nazareth Academy Convent until 1982, when she moved to St. Joseph Convent Infirmary.

A talented musician, Sister Kieran always enjoyed playing the piano for her friends.

She is survived by her sister and brother-in-law, Helen and Richard Lancer of Rochester; her nephew, Richard K. Lancer; a grandniece, Karin Lancer; and numerous cousins.

Dorothy Fitzgerald, Auburn parishioner, volunteer

Miss Dorothy J. Fitzgerald, an office volunteer at St. Mary's Church in Auburn for more than 30 years, died unexpectedly at her home on Monday, July 13, 1987, at the age of 79.

Her nephew, Father David Fitzgerald, was the principal celebrant of the Mass of Christian Burial. He was assisted by Monsignor James D. Cuffney; Fathers Edward A. Zimmer, David J. Faraone, all of St. Mary's; Father James C. Enright, chaplain at Auburn Correctional Facility; Father Conrad J. Sundholm of Holy Family; Father Paul Brennan of Sacred Heart; Father John Dillon of Sodus; and Father Paul McCabe of Elmira.

Services at the family plot in St. Joseph's Cemetery were conducted by Father Fitzgerald, who was assisted by Fathers Zimmer, Dillon, Brennan and McCabe.

Miss Fitzgerald, a life-long member of St. Mary's, was very active in parish affairs. In addition to serving on the advisory board of the parish, she was a trustee, auditor and member of the Rosary and Scapular Society. She was also active in the Mercy Hospital Rehabilitation Center and the Meals on Wheels Program, and a member of the senior citizens organization. She conducted her own program of help for those who needed her services.

Miss Fitzgerald attended various schools in Auburn as well as the Menges Business School. She worked for the Auburn newspaper, the Citizen Advertiser, for almost 50 years before retiring in 1973 as the circulation manager.

Miss Fitzgerald is survived by two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald and Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald; four nephews, a niece and several cousins.
