a guess, the West could be the more explosive team on offense with Rodney Griffin, Franklin's former all-purpose player, on its side.

Griffin is a powerhouse who could break some big runs. From the Catholic high schools, Joe Altobelli (Aquinas), Greg Becoates (Bishop Kearney), John Bell (Cardinal Mooney), Daniel Hawryschuk (Cardinal Mooney) and Brian Mackey (Aquinas) should see ample playing time on the West squad, which will be coached by Dennis Leyden from Attica

Central. Jason Jenkins, a former two-way player at McQuaid Jesuit High School, is the lone Catholic high school representative on the East team. Coached by Red Jacket's Dom Vitticore, the East will have some fire power with Rocky Stefano (Sperry) and Terry Mulheron (Canandaigua) as offensive threats.

The series between the East and West stands at 2-2.

This year's Eddie Meath All-Star Football Game is scheduled for 8 p.m. Saturday, August 1, at Fauver Stadium. Tickets may be purchased prior to the game at any Perkins Restaurant or at the gate.
