Leigh Hellrung looked skyward as Santa Claus made an unorthodox landing by helicopter at Camp SSJ.

St. Nick was forced by the heat to abandon his reindeer and sleigh, but he received a jubilant welcome nonetheless.

'It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas...'

Camp SSJ and Ss. Peter and Paul Parish's "Fun in the Son" program shared the same idea for summer fun. Christmas came five months early to the Pittsford campus of the Sisters of St. Joseph motherhouse with the arrival of Santa Claus on Friday, July 24.

Meanwhile, on the other side of town, children marked the end of Ss. Peter and Paul's annual neighborhood program on the same day with a Yuletide celebration of their own.

And just in case you forgot, there are only 140 shopping days left till Christmas.

Children from the city's west side were eager to practice their tree-decorating skills at Ss. Peter and Paul.
