Al G. Miller, served 74 years as a Knight of St. John

Al G. Miller, the oldest active member of the Rochester Regiment, Knights of St. John, died Saturday, July 25, 1987, just a month before his 97th birthday.

A member of Commandery 43 of St. Michael's Church for 74 years, Mr. Miller served the Knights of St. John as an officer at local, state and international levels. From 1936 to 1946, he was president of his local commandery. In 1940, he was named major of the First Battalion. Five years later, Mr. Miller advanced to lieutenant colonel of the Rochester Regiment. In 1953, he was chosen as supreme inspector general with the rank of brigadier general, a position in which he served for 30 years.

In addition, Mr. Miller was a charter member of the Nocturnal Adoration Society and a regular participant in the radio broadcast of the Family Rosary for Peace. He also served for 50 years as an usher at St. Monica's Church in Rochester, where he and his late wife, Josephine Fichtner Miller, were parishioners.

Mr. Miller is survived by one daughter, four sons, two brothers, four sisters, 27 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren, as well as several nieces and nephews.

Uniformed members of the Knights of St. John served as an honorary escort at Mr. Miller's Mass of Christian Burial, which was celebrated by Father Neil Miller, regimental chaplain, on Tuesday, July 28, at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church. Interment was at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Group seeks actors for improvisational plays

The Park Ridge Players, a group which performs improvisational plays for community groups, now has openings for men and women volunteer actors, especially men over the age of 30.

Presentations deal with such issues as suicide, drug abuse, adolescent problems, marital conflict and aging. The players' membership includes school teachers, retirees, high school students and staff members of Park Ridge Mental Health Center and Park Ridge Hospital.

Some public speaking or acting background is preferred. Call Leslie Brodie at (716)244-7237 for information.
