For An Ad To Be Read, The Newspaper Must Be Read!

When people read the articles in the Courier-Journal, chances are they will read the ads too!

If the newspaper they are scanning does not hold their attention, an advertisement could slip by unnoticed as well.

Based on a McGraw Hill readership survey, the Courier-Journal subscriber has been reading our paper for 14.6 years, and most of those same subscribers spend an average of nearly 45 minutes reading a typical issue. What's more, 87% of all Courier-Journal subscribers spend at least some time looking through, or reading 3 out of 4 issues of the Courier-Journal they receive.

Why not consider the Courier-Journal when making your media selection and reach over 100,000 readers weekly.

With facts and figures like those above, it's no wonder the ads get read too!
