Seniors Samantha Schramm and Sally De-Carlis give the Nazareth coach some experience, and he will look to senior keeper Lesley Salladin to take charge of a young defense.

Jeanette Jones is the lone returning starter on defense for Nazareth, which fell in the championship game of the Spencerport Tournament last weekend. "The defense will be inexperienced, but they all play summer league so I'm not really worried," Hendrick said. "And they all know the system here."

Senior Nancy Bush as well as sophomores Kathy Doran and Amy Farrell have earned starting spots, but Nazareth's strength is at midfield where three seniors will hope to create opportunities on offense. Margaret Sawyko, an All-League standout for Nazareth last season, is back for her final season. Hendrick called the senior midfielder "the strongest individual player on the team."

"My midfield will be the backbone of the team," Hendrick said. "With a younger defense this year, we're going to have to keep scoring."

Hendrick will provide his team with a tougher non-league schedule this fall, hoping the competitive games will enhance his team's chances when the sectionals come around.

"Last year in that final contest (against Midlakes), we gave up the game," Hendricks said, adding that a mental lapse in the waning moments enabled Midlakes to score. "I'm hoping that with more mature players and a more intense schedule we'll do better this year (in the sectionals)."

ANOTHER NEW COACH looking to establish a consistently winning program is Mike Rood at DeSales High School in Class C. The Lady Saints' mentor helped with the junior varsity back in 1985, and was approached this summer by DeSales athletic director Steve Muzzi about the varsity post.

"Steve came to me and said he really wants to develop the program," Rood said. "We're both looking to upgrade the program."

That may prove to be a difficult task, considering the loss of Babette DeVaney, Kris Guinan and Nellie Lynch — the three top performers from last year's squad — to graduation.

Rood must also compete with the dwindling number of students, a problem that is plaguing most area high schools. The enrollment decline will force the new coach to shuffle players from the varsity and the JV squads.

The Lady Saints soccer team enjoyed a banner year in 1982, when they won the Finger Lakes West Division title before bowing out of the sectional finals. But the program has struggled ever since, a trend that Rood and Muzzi hope to change quickly.

IN JUST ITS SECOND season ever for fielding a girls' varsity team, Elmira Notre Dame may be primed to do something big in Section 4 Class C this season.

Second-year coach Steve Weber is hoping his team can start the same way it finished its inaugural season last fall. After winning just one game during the first half of the schedule, the Lady Crusaders came away with three wins and two ties against mostly larger competition in the second half.

Notre Dame then went on to the sectionals, where it lost to Groton in the semifinals. The ND coach lost 15 players to graduation in June, including Lisa Johnston and Mimi Tarantelli.

Weber is confident his returners will do the job, though. Nat Kozlowski, who was his leading scorer as a junior and was named to the first-team of the Sullivan Trail Conference, is back, as are Lisa Boulas, Tricia Ratchford and goalie Tina Maloney.

Kathie Cain, a top runner for the Crusaders' track team in the spring, and Debbie Farran provide Weber with better-than-average speed. Farran opted to play soccer this fall instead of running cross-country.

Weber is hoping that the addition of speed in the lineup will give his team the advantage it needs to start pulling out close games.

"We lost a lot of close games last year. I'm hoping with the extra speed and a little more experience, we'll have a better record and a better seeding in the sectionals."

Now that ND also has a junior-varsity program, Weber would like to see the program win consistently.

"The numbers are there now; we had 25 players last year and have 34 this year," Weber said. "We finished strong last year, and we're hoping to start the way we finished."

lead in the fourth quarter when Brian Monteleone hooked up with Mark Chapman on a seven-yard touchdown pass, giving the Little Irish a 12-10 lead.

Then came the error on AQ's "not-so" special teams.

"Turnovers and special teams really hurt us," Battaglia said. "We've got to cut down on those mistakes if we're going to win consistently."

AQ led everywhere but in the final score. The defense stymied Gates-Chili's offense after a shaky start, and the offense moved the ball well despite bad field position much of the game.

Tony Postell gained 95 yards on the ground, and Chapman gathered in six passes for 188 yards, but only two offensive series resulted in points.

AQ will be looking to notch its first win of the season against Franklin at home this Saturday at 1 p.m. The Quakers were a 14-12 winner over league foe Edison.

HF-L 19, DeSales 0

Take away the first quarter, and DeSales played Honeoye Falls-Lima virtually even last Saturday. Unfortunately for coach Jim McNicholas and his young Saints, you can't do that. Honeoye Falls-Lima roared out to a 12-0, first-quarter lead and held on for a 19-0 win at home over the Saints.

"It was kind of a backward game," McNicholas said after the game. "Once we got settled down we were OK, but give them credit — they can play football."

DeSales was victimized by dropped passes and untimely penalties. The Saints were deep in their opponent's territory four times, but failed to score on any of these opportunities. Two passes were dropped in the endzone, and one TD was called back after a penalty.

McNicholas said he would take what positive aspects came out of the season-opening loss and work from there.

"The younger kids found out they can play football once they settled down," McNicholas said.

DeSales will face a tough Dundee team this Friday night at 7:30 p.m.

Greece Olympia 7, Mooney 0

John Heck's Cardinal Mooney squad struggled last season, despite having one of the league's better defenses. Once again his defense was tough, but his offense forgot to show up as Greece Olympia defeated the Cardinals, 7-0, in a non-league game played at Mooney on Saturday.

A TD pass in the second quarter was all the Spartans needed. An 80-yard scoring drive culminated with a TD pass from Ken Maracle to Dan Capiersheo.

Capiersheo was also the star of the game defensively, making 12 tackles, recovering a fumble and intercepting one pass.

Heck's squad gained a total of 107 yards on offense.

Kearney 14, Victor 6

In yet another non-league matchup, visiting Bishop Kearney earned a 14-6 win over Victor of the Finger Lakes West last Saturday.

The winning margin resulted from quarterback Tim Englert's pass to tight end Wendell Spiva in the fourth quarter.

With the exception of one offensive drive, Mooney's defense had Greece Olympia under wraps all day.
