National council sets seminar for adult children of alcoholics

The Rochester Office of the National Council on Alcoholism will sponsor a residential seminar/workshop on "Adult Children of Dysfunctional Families" at Keuka College beginning Thursday, Oct. 29, and ending Sunday, Nov. 1.

Information can be obtained from the national Council on Alcoholism, 973 East Ave., Rochester or call (716) 473-6750.

Annual YMCA membership drive

The Campus YMCA at the University of Rochester is hoping to raise $16,000 during its annual supporting membership campaign, which will run through November 6.

Volunteer campaign co-chairmen Tom Webb and Rob Thompson, as well as Dave Hargrave, executive director of the Campus YMCA Branch, are heading this year's campaign, which will raise money to underwrite such programs as Assistants in Medicine; Adopt-a-Grandparent; tutoring; Big Brother/Big Sister; exercise fitness; sign language; swimming; Association for Retarded Citizens; Compeer; Visiting Nurse Service; and the Children's Carnival.

The Campus YMCA is a branch of the YMCA of Greater Rochester, and is one of nine YMCA units in Monroe County participating in this annual effort. This year's overall goal is $362,000.

Each YMCA uses the funds it raises for programs in its own local service. The Campus YMCA primarily serves undergraduate and graduate students and faculty at UR, but welcomes involvement from the entire Rochester community as well.

Call (716) 275-5957 to make a contribution or to volunteer.

Diocesan Appointments

Bishop Matthew H. Clark has announced the following diocesan appointments:

Father John B. Barrett, CPM, from parochial vicar of Sacred Heart Church, Massena, to parochial vicar of St. Joseph's Church, Penfield, effective November 1.

Father Eugene G. Emo, from parochial vicar of Holy Rosary Church, Rochester, to pastor of St. Januarius Church, Naples, effective October 27.

Father Francis E. Blighton, returning from temporary administrator of St. Januarius Church, Naples, to parochial vicar of Blessed Sacrament Church, Rochester, effective October 27.

Deacon William D. Maune from parish deacon at Our Lady of Perpetual Help to associate director of the permanent diaconate-ordained, effective October 1. He will retain a liturgical ministry base at Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

Again, from the top

Thursday, Oct. 22, marks the debut of new television advertisements for the annual Thanks Giving Appeal. In September, a production crew from WORK-TV13 filmed Bishop Matthew H. Clark's introduction to the commercials "on location" at Sacred Heart Cathedral. Gray skies gave way to sunshine just in time for the filming, but traffic on Flower City Park did not cooperate, causing unacceptable background noise. On what must have seemed the 100th take to Bishop Clark, everything seemed perfect - until a plane flew over, producing these reactions from the bishop.

Volunteers needed to assist Hospice of Rochester with patients, families

Volunteers are needed by Cancer Action, Inc. (formerly United Cancer Council, Inc.) in Monroe and Wayne Counties to help seriously ill patients and families in their homes as part of Hospice of Rochester. Training is scheduled for Thursday and Friday, Nov. 5 and 6, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The basic training will consist of Hospice medical philosophy; communication skills; ambulation and transfers; physical assistance to patients; and bereavement.

Volunteers generally provided patients with certain services, but are not limited to them. Typically, they offer emotional support, non-nursing assistance, respite care, light household tasks, reading, writing letters, transportation and shopping. Especially needed are people available on a regular basis during daytime hours.

The volunteer component of Hospice is coordinated by Cancer Action, Inc. in cooperation with Genesee Region Home Care Association, Inc. Cancer Action, Inc., is a United Way Agency.

For information and an application form, call (716) 473-8230.
