overs in for touchdowns as Canandaigua ripped the visiting Knights (2-2, 3-3-1), 42-7.
The Knight passing game, which was revitalized against Edison in McQuaid's win a week earlier, was unable to get going against Foster's experienced secondary.

Offensively, Canandaigua was paced by senior fullback Dave Von Rhedy, who scored twice and rushed for 70 yards.

McQuaid ends its regular season at Franklin Saturday, Oct. 31, at 1 p.m.

Mooney 10, Edison 10

John Heck's Cardinals squandered a 10-point lead in the second half as Edison (1-3-1, 2-4-1) rallied to tie visiting Mooney (1-4-1, 1-5-1), 10-10.

Robert Steinmiz's 37-yard field goal tied the game for the Inventors.

Mooney will close out its season with a home game against winless Penfield (0-7) at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

Midlakes 49, DeSales 18

Coach Jim McNicholas' hopes for his Saints to get their first win of the season in their homecoming game against Midlakes were rudely doused as DeSales (0-7) fell, 49-18, Saturday, Oct. 31.

DeSales' offense sputtered as Midlakes led 21-0 at the half and 35-6 after three quarters.

"I thought we were really prepared for them," McNicholas said after the loss. "Our blocking fell apart; they did exactly what I thought they'd do."

One bright spot for the Saints was the play of freshman linebacker Jim Bedora, who played most of the game for McNicholas, who is already looking ahead to next season.

"It's been a tough year; we've been hurt by inexperience more than anything," said

McNicholas, who will only lose a handful of players to graduation in the off season.

Freshman quarterback Frank Payne also played well for DeSales after relieving junior Ron Cecere in the fourth quarter.

McNicholas was going to give his players a day off this week as the team prepared for its season finale against South Seneca, but his players insisted on practicing.

DeSales last game of the season is at South Seneca Saturday at 1 p.m.

Fighting Kings are hoping to equal their sectional accomplishments of last year, when they reached the final game before losing to Arcadia. Despite finishing 3-14-1, Schuber believes his Kings will prove a worthy opponent to other B-1 schools.

"We're sort of hoping to sneak up on some people," said Schuber, whose team squared off against No. 8 Batavia at Batavia on Wednesday, Oct. 28. "Things are usually much tighter in the sectionals, so who knows what we'll do."

If the Kings beat Batavia they have the unenviable task of facing No. 1 Arcadia in the quarterfinals Saturday, Oct. 30, at Arcadia.

Whatever Kearney ends up doing, it may be without its coach. Schuber sustained a serious knee injury last weekend and may have to let his brother Mike—who coaches the JV at Kearney—guide the team.

In class B-2, No. 7 Aquinas began its defense of the title with a home game against Geneva Tuesday, Oct. 27. Coach Emilio Monti's Little Irish stormed through B-2 competition last October, before falling to Arcadia—more specifically, Mike Bianchi—3-0 in a Class B state playoff.

latter part of the season may be enough for them to make some noise in the post-season. "We'll just go out and play our game; I think (the players on) defense and offense are finally comfortable with themselves," said Rood, who took over the program from Mack Spellecy this season.

No. 2 Livonia at Livonia on Friday, Oct. 30.

OVER IN SECTION 4 Class C, Notre Dame coach Henry Ferguson has a week to prepare for his Crusader's attempt to defend their sectional crown.

The regular season ended last Thursday, Oct. 22, but the sectionals don't begin until this weekend.

ND (6-10-1) is coming off a tough 4-3 loss to Southern Cayuga. Three of Southern Cayuga's four goals came on penalty kicks. The Crusaders also tied Corning 1-1 in their regular season finale. Just a week earlier, ND beat a previously undefeated Elmira Free Academy team.

Despite his team's disappointing overall record, Ferguson is confident the Crusaders may be able to do something in the sectionals.

"The last three games helped as far as morale goes," Ferguson said. "And we've played a couple of the teams we will see in the sectionals very tough this season."

The winner of the game between DeSales and Lyndonville would play No. 3 Arkport (12-6) in the quarterfinals on Saturday, Oct. 31 at a site and time to be announced.

STEVE WEBER'S Lady Crusaders got a call from Section 4 officials Sunday night, Oct. 25. Weber's Notre Dame team (5-10-1) is seeded No. 4 in the upcoming Class C tourney, and is scheduled to play No. 5 Union Springs (3-12-1) Saturday, Oct. 31 at 1 p.m.

Notre Dame's scoring drought continued last week in losses to Elmira Free Academy (4-1), Wellsville (3-0) and Horseheads (5-1), but ND will most likely not see teams of that caliber in the sectionals. EFA is ranked 25th in the state in girls' soccer.

The week layoff will allow some nagging injuries to heal for Notre Dame, as well as to provide time to prepare for the possibility of playing No. 1 Trumansburg (13-3) in the semis. No.2 Groton (13-1-1) and No. 3 Davenport (12-1-2) are the other teams competing for the title in Section C.

Weber found out last week that leading scorer Nat Kozlowski was named to the first team of the Steuben County League as well as to the first team of the Sullivan Trail Conference team.

Goalkeeper Tina Maloney, who was absent from the Crusader lineup through the middle part of the season, was named to the second team of the Steuben League and first team Sullivan Trail Conference.

Lisa Boulas was named to the second team of the STC and Tricia Ratchford was an honorable mention.
