Sister Philomena DeSocio, SSJ, longtime teacher

Mass of Christian Burial for Sister Philomena DeSocio of the Sisters of St. Joseph was celebrated in the SSJ motherhouse chapel on October 24, 1987. Sister DeSocio died at St. Joseph Convent Infirmary on Tuesday, Oct. 21, 1987. The principal celebrant of the Mass was Father John DeSocio, a distant relative of Sister DeSocio's, who was assisted by Fathers Peter Bayer, James Sauers and Tom Miller, CSB.

A native of Elmira, Sister DeSocio entered the Sisters of St. Joseph from St. Anthony's Parish in 1926. She earned her teaching degree from Nazareth College and taught in various elementary schools for 44 years. Sister DeSocio taught in nine diocesan schools in Rochester; at St. Paul's, Oswego, in the Syracuse diocese; and at St. Elizabeth School in Selma, Alabama.

The Rochester diocesan schools at which Sister DeSocio taught were: St. Anthony of Padua and Immaculate Conception, Rochester, for nine years; St. Lucy's, Corpus Christi, St. Francis Xavier, Rochester; St. Patrick, Seneca Falls; St. Mary Our Mother, Horseheads; and St. Francis DeSales, Geneva.

After leaving the teaching profession, she became director of activities for the Sisters of St. Joseph, and was particularly involved with events in the convent infirmary.

Sister DeSocio is survived by several sisters and brothers-in-law, Matthew and Julia Derito, Mary Quatrano, and Carmel Spallone; a brother and sister-in-law, Michael and Beatrice DeSocio; a brother-in-law Americo D'Aloisio; and many nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grand-nephews and cousins.

SOUND ADVICE

By: John Crandall - Hearing Aid Specialist

Sound travels four times faster in water than air and fifteen times faster through steel. Remember the old movies where the Indian put his ear to the train tracks to see if the train was coming? It actually works because of the speed at which sound travels through steel.

If you have to speechread (lipread) stay abreast of current events so you will have a head start in knowing what people are talking about.

Question - Years ago I was told that a hearing aid would be of no help to me, why should I try hearing aids now?

Answer - Many improvements in hearing aids have occurred in the last few years which now make it possible to help people who could not be helped just a few short years ago. The best way to see if hearing aids will help is to give them a try then decide for yourself.

Tournament

"We started the game out poorly; I don't know if it was pre-game jitters or what," Boughton said after the loss. "Then Fairport seemed to dominate the second half, and we dominated the overtime."

Until Jacoby's goal.

Although the season ended in disappointment, Mercy's season was nothing short of remarkable. Just a year ago the Monarchs finished the season at 4-10-1 - a far cry from this fall's accomplishments.

"I'm so proud of what they've done," Boughton said. "To come back after last season and be 15-2 shows what type of players they are."

Fairport advanced to the quarterfinals against Mercy with a 2-1 overtime win over Scott Morrison's eighth-seeded Lady Cards (11-6-1) Wednesday, Oct. 28. Once again, Jacoby scored the winning goal - this time on a penalty kick 2:50 into the second sudden-death overtime in the Class AAA game at Mooney. Officials awarded the penalty kick after a hand-ball was called on Mooney.

Morrison's club dominated play during most of the game, but was unable to put the upstart Red Raiders away. Meredith Rae scored Mooney's lone tally in the first half, but Fairport's Sarah Bouley tied the score late in the second half.

For the Mooney coach, whose team outshot Fairport 17-12, the loss marked yet another game this season where his team carried the play, but had nothing to show for it.

"This is what makes soccer so exciting; the better team doesn't always win," Morrison said. "We had some really good opportunities but we just couldn't put another one in."

IN CLASS AA, Sam Fame's 14th-seeded Lady Fighting Kings overcame a nightmare of events to beat host No. 3 Midlakes last Thursday, Oct. 29, before losing to Pittsford-Sutherland at Sutherland last Saturday, Oct. 31.

It took three days for the Kearney-Midlakes game to be played. The first game last Tuesday, Oct. 27, was halted by darkness in the second overtime with Midlakes holding a 3-2 advantage. Section 5 rules state that sectional games called by darkness must be played in their entirety, so the match was re-scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 28. After Kearney was unable to find transportation to the game on Wednesday, the game was finally played and won by Kearney 3-2 in OT on Thursday, Oct. 29.

The Lady Kings converted three penalty kicks to Midlakes' one to move on in the tourney. Krissi Laboski, Katie Berube and Pam Buddendeck all scored for Kearney. Buddendeck, who also plays goal for Fame, came through with three key saves in the shootout. She recorded 12 saves in all for the game.

Against sixth-seeded Pittsford-Sutherland on Saturday, Oct. 31, a tired Kearney team fell 1-0 in the quarterfinal game at Sutherland (10-6-4).

Berin Dwyer's goal with 12 minutes remaining in the first half was the game's only score.

Kearney ended the season at 7-12.

NAZARETH RAN INTO a juggernaut in Pittsford Mendon last Friday, Oct. 30, after beating Newark in its opening game in the tournament.

Goals by Sue Connolly and Colleen Gagne were all Dick Hendrick's squad needed to beat host and 10th-seeded Newark 2-1 last Tuesday, Oct. 27. Lesley Salladin recorded 16 saves for Nazareth.

Against second-seeded Pittsford Mendon (15-5) last Friday, Oct. 30, Hendrick's squad was beaten 7-1. Renee Gambitta scored Nazareth's lone goal.

Mendon is the defending Class B state champion.

Nazareth finished the season 8-6-2.

Greg McMaster's eighth-seeded Aquinas team fell in the opening round of sectional games to Hornell, 2-1, in a game played at Geneseo.

Aquinas ended the season at 7-8-3.

OVER IN CLASS C, Mike Rood's 11th-seeded Lady Saints of DeSales succumbed to No. 6 Lyndonville, 2-0, at Wheatland-Chili. Rood's girls were 3-13-1 for the season.
