Candidates sought to serve in volunteer parish ministry

The diocesan Office of Parish Services is seeking candidates interested in serving as Collegial Associates.

The new ministry offers volunteers an opportunity to work with parish councils on a consultative basis. Applicants are, among other criteria, required to be practicing Roman Catholics and worshipping members of a local faith community.

Grid playoffs

"I'd rather see the kids play two or three sports. (Elmira Notre Dame) wouldn't be able to survive athletically if kids couldn't play two or three sports," said D'Aloisio, whose Crusaders in Section 4 would probably play the Albany-area champion if ND won its section. "I'm sure the success of our interscholastic teams gets more kids to come to Notre Dame."

D'Aloisio, who has also coached basketball at ND, said special arrangements will need to be made between coaches whose seasons overlap.

"Maybe towards the end of the year practice time could be cut down" he said.

New Year's Eve show cancelled at Nazareth College Arts Center

The Nazareth College Arts Center has cancelled the Thursday, Dec. 31, New Year's Eve performance of the Mahattan Rhythm Kings due to unanticipated developments in the renovation of the Main Stage lighting system.

The lighting-system renovation includes the installation of a computerized light board which will greatly enhance the lighting capabilities of the theatre.

Weather is another factor state officials will need to consider. Although the New York City area and Long Island already schedule post-season football games on Thanksgiving Day — the traditional day for bowl games in the Big Apple — upstate New York grid teams might not be as fortunate.

"This part of the country gets awfully cold," said Teta, who grew up on Long Island, and remembers high school bowl games on Thanksgiving Day quite well. "That would mean the season would run 13 or 14 weeks by the time it's over."

"Everything is just so accelerated," Sprague said. "This is the way it's going in high school sports today with so many basketball camps and football teams lifting weights. I knew this was coming."

Refunds or exchanges will be issued to those who have already purchased tickets. Tickets must be returned by mail or in person for a refund or exchange at the Nazareth College Box Office, 4245 East Ave., Rochester. Call (716) 586-2420 for information.
