

Around the Diocese

Fr. John Rosse
Holy Name Parish

MEDJUGORJE

May 9-23

Fr. John Rosse from Holy Name parish will lead a group to the shrine of Medjugorje with a side trip to Greece and the Greek Islands.

For more information, call:

HALLS TRAVEL
(716) 865-4800

"It is the right of every pregnant woman to give birth... and the right of every child to be born."

BIRTHRIGHT

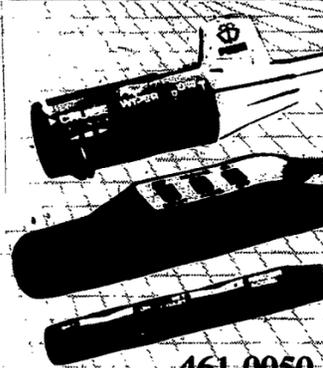

Canandaigua	(716) 394-8737	Owego	(607) 687-1133
Cayuga County	(315) 252-7885	Penn Yan	(315) 536-8890
Corning	(607) 962-6857	Rochester (West)	(716) 328-8700
Ithaca	(607) 272-9070	Brighton-Pittsford	(716) 385-2529
		Seneca County	(315) 568-8904

Free Confidential Pregnancy Testing and Counseling
Maternity Clothes, Baby Clothes, and Furniture Available
Housing Provided when needed. Anyone wishing to send a tax-deductible contribution may do so by contacting your local birthright office.

Automatic Speed Control

Your "silent chauffer" for easy driving.

These custom control modules duplicate the factory controls incorporating set speed, resume, accel, decel, or coast. Windshield wiper, horn and headlamp functions where applicable. Full year warranty—no mileage limitation.

461-0050
777 Monroe Ave.
Rochester

MOVING?

Please Remember to Include Your Mailing Label when notifying us of an address change.

COURIER-JOURNAL

Bishop Matthew H. Clark
President

Bishop Dennis W. Hickey
General Manager

Karen M. Franz
Editor

Vol. 99, No. 17 February 4, 1988
Courier-Journal (USPS 135-580)

Published weekly except week after July 4 and Christmas, by the Rochester Catholic Press Association. Subscription rates: Single copy 50¢. One-year subscription in U.S. $15. Canada and Foreign $20. Offices: 1150 Buffalo Rd., Rochester, N.Y. 14624, (716) 328-4340. Second Class Postage paid at Rochester, N.Y. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to Courier-Journal, 1150 Buffalo Rd., Rochester, N.Y. 14624.

INCREASE ATTENDANCE At Your PARISH FUNCTIONS

Make Your Fund Raisers
a Success...

Advertise them in
The Courier-Journal!

Every Thursday and Friday,
our subscribers read our Ads
and attend parish activities
around the Diocese.

For Advertising Information
Call: 328-4340

Choirs to sing Vivaldi's Gloria

St. Mary Our Mother, Horseheads — The parish choir, in conjunction with the choir of Horseheads United Methodist Church, will present the Gloria of Antonio Vivaldi on Sunday, Feb. 7, at 4 p.m. at St. Mary's Church, 816 W. Broad St. (corner Westinghouse Road), Horseheads.

The concert will feature soloists Susan Amisano and Cheryl Littell, and a chamber orchestra under the direction of David P. Jenkins. It also will include a performance of Handel's Concerto in F Major for organ and orchestra, featuring organist David S. Peckham, and baroque music for trumpet, featuring Frank Campos.

Amisano, a soprano, has appeared as a soloist with the Elmira Symphony, the Cantata Singers and the Cluster Churches of Elmira. A graduate of Ithaca College School of Music, she is currently a member of the Ithaca Opera Ensemble, director of Music at Lake Street Presbyterian Church and soloist for Temple B'nai Israel, both in Elmira.

Mezzo-soprano Littell is a graduate of Oberlin Conservatory and Carnegie-Mellon University. A singer with the Ithaca Opera Ensemble, she served for 10 years as chorister/soloist with the Spanish Radio-Television Choir in Madrid, Spain, and has sung, with the Pittsburgh Chamber Opera Company and the Pittsburgh Oratorio Society.

Conductor Jenkins is full-time director of music at St. Mary Our Mother Church. He holds a doctorate in organ-performance and a performer's certificate from the Eastman School of Music, and has also earned degrees from Oberlin Conservatory and University in Iowa.

Peckham studied organ in the Horseheads area with Albert Zabel and at the Eastman School of Music with David Craighead. He is the organist at Horseheads First United Methodist Church. Trumpeter Frank Campos is on the music faculty at Ithaca College.

Liturgy, dinner planned for couples

Our Lady of Lourdes, Elmira — The Adult Education and Liturgy committees are planning a special liturgy, spaghetti dinner and lecture for married couples. The event will take place on the eve of St. Valentine's Day, Saturday, Feb. 13, beginning with the 5:30 p.m. Mass.

The speaker for the evening will be Dr. Meredith Bombar, associate professor of psychology at Elmira College, who is currently writing a book entitled "Love and Friendship." Bombar will discuss "Love in a Modern World."

Call Lisa Rustici, (607) 732-5816, or Karen Jennings, 734-8414 for reservations.

Nazareth College has announced the receipt of two bequests: $20,000 from the estate of professor emerita Virginia Otto, and $67,000 from the estate of Ruth M. Page.

Otto, who died in January, 1987, made the bequest to assist foreign language majors at Nazareth. The Virginia Otto Scholarship will be used to provide financial aid for travel and study in a country in which the language of each winner's major is spoken. The first scholarship will be awarded for the fall 1988 semester. The chairman of the foreign language department will choose the recipient.

A member of the Nazareth faculty for 30 years, Otto played a central role in the development of the college's foreign-study programs and its trio of on-campus French, Italian and Spanish language houses. She was the chairman of Nazareth's foreign-language department and was the first director of the college's Casa Italiana.

Page, a 1938 Nazareth College graduate, died in September, 1986. She made the bequest in memory of her parents, creating the Albert J. and Rosemary Page Scholarship. The first scholarship will be awarded for the fall semester, 1988.

Two Bishop Kearney High School students, Keith Micoli and Nancy Zoltnar, won first and second places respectively in the United Cerebral Palsy Association's second-annual telethon essay contest. In their essays — on the topic, "The Rights of Disabled Persons" — both students recalled incidents from the life of a disabled classmate who recently died.

Brian Weber, an eighth-grade student at St. Charles Borromeo School, won third place in the contest. All three students received $25 gift certificates to the Village Green Bookstore in Rochester.

Parish Notes

Committee hosting abortion forum

St. Rita, Webster — on Wednesday, Feb. 10, the parish social ministry committee will host a forum on the topic of abortion. The guest speaker for the event will be Gerry Oftedahl, chairwoman of the New York State Right to Life Committee. Oftedahl, who has 15 years' experience fighting abortion, will share her pro-life perspective, suggest avenues for action and respond to audience questions.

Refreshments will be served. For information, call Mary Ann Kwiatkowski, (716) 671-1997.

Meetings address single parenting

Cayuga Team Ministry — Special meetings are planned to discuss issues affecting single parents and single women who are pregnant. Topics to be discussed in the presentations are relationships, parenting skills, raising children, finding new jobs, etc.

The talks — which will take place Tuesday, Feb. 9, at St. Michael's hall in Union Springs and Tuesday, Feb. 23, at St. Joseph's hall in Cayuga — are sponsored by the Finger Lakes Office of Social Ministry. Both meetings will run from 12:30-2:30 p.m. Call Chris, (315) 252-0018, or Camille, 253-0361, for information.

Marriage day liturgy planned

St. Thomas More, Rochester — The Margaret Roper Guild has planned a celebration of World Marriage Day on Sunday, Feb. 7. The noon Mass will commemorate the marriages of couples marking anniversaries in multiples of five years, and will include a renewal of marriage vows. Following the Mass, a special reception will take place.

All parishioners are welcome to attend. For information, call the rectory, (716) 381-4200.

Pre-Lenten dinner dance set

St. Francis of Assisi, Rochester — The parish's annual dinner dance has been set for Saturday, Feb. 13, the traditional Saturday before the beginning of Lent. The dinner will be catered by Wilshire Restaurant, with music provided by disc jockey Sam Trubia.

A limited number of tickets — priced at $12 a person — are available. For information, call Josephine Rizzo, (716) 328-2762, or the rectory, 436-6693, during business hours.

Neighbors

St. Leo's Council 9461 Knights of Columbus of Hilton, NY, has earned the Columbian and Founder's Awards.

The Founder's Award, named in honor of Father Michael J. McGivney, who established the organization, recognizes outstanding membership, recruitment and retention efforts by a local council.

The Columbian Award honors councils which sponsor excellent programs to serve families and youth as well as church, community and council members.

District Deputy William Cody of Brockport presented the awards to Dr. Timothy Parsons, council grand knight, at a special dinner meeting last month.

Diane Trickey-Rokenbrod was named administrator of the Residential Health Care Facility at Mercycare, a division of St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell. The 55-bed facility — which officially opened January 25 — is designed to meet the Hornell-area's need for beds in skilled-nursing facilities and to make available some of the acute-care beds at St. James Mercy.

A graduate of the University of Buffalo with a degree in occupational therapy, Trickey-Rokenbrod had headed the occupational therapy department at St. James Mercy since 1980. She has completed a nursing-home administration course at Cazenovia College and a nine-month administrator-training program at Founders Pavilion in Corning.