were offensive boards, which the Lady Crusaders converted into points.

Against Hornell on Tuesday, Feb. 2, Quinn's girls squandered a 43-37 lead going into the fourth quarter and eventually lost, 60-58.

Hornell's aggressive play in the fourth quarter enabled it to outscore ND, 23-15, and anger Quinn. "We don't seem to have the killer instinct sometimes," the ND coach said. "I don't know if it's because we don't totally behave been by a total of 11 points.

Against host Red Jacket on Friday, Feb. 5, DeSales fell to its Finger Lakes West opponent, 59-57. And against Dundee on Wednesday, Feb. 3, Tony Alvaro's squad succumbed, 57-51.

"Right now, we're playing just good enough to lose," said Alvaro, whose Saints led Dundee, 28-26 at the half. "The lack of experience makes it hard to get a consistent effort (from each player) game after game."

Pedro Rojas, who is DeSales' leading scorer this year, paced the Saints with 14 points against Dundee.

NOTRE DAME LOST its third and fourth consecutive league games last week. Mike Johnston's Crusaders (2-7, 9-8) fell to Corning West, 60-47, on Friday, Feb. 5, and to Hor-

The Crusaders also suffered from bad foul shooting, converting on just three of eight from the stripe.

Kozlowski led her team with 16 points while Maloney added 15. Sophomore Julie Cox, who has been one of Quinn's steadier players of late, added eight points.

The Crusaders finish up the season against Corning East, Horseheads and Owego before embarking onto the sectionals. Quinn is cautiously optimistic about the chances of this year's team.

"We have gotten a lot of people some good experience, and that will help (in the sectionals)," she said. "A lot depends on the seniors."

nell, 64-56, on Tuesday, Feb. 2.

The Crusaders, who have been without the services of Scott Long and Christian Falkenberg, also lost Sean Murray to an ankle sprain against Hornell.

The Crusaders found themselves tied at 18-18 against Corning West, before they were outscored 7-0 in the final moments of the first half and trailed, 25-18 at intermission.

Corning West never surrendered the lead in the second half. John Phillips, who has been playing brilliantly while Falkenberg and Long have been recuperating, scored 23 points against Corning West.

Against Hornell earlier in the week, the Crusaders found themselves down by seven points at the half and nine points in the second half, but were able to dwindle the lead to two points with two minutes remaining. Hornell weathered the storm, however, sending the Crusaders to yet another close league loss. Phillips scored 26 points in the losing effort.

THOUGHTS TO CONSIDER

EDWIN SULEWSKI FUNERAL DIRECTOR

How Can I Help Someone Who is Grieving?

You can help in a number of special ways. Through reaching out and offering support in the form of listening and presence you will help a great deal. Ask your friend how they are doing. Mention the deceased by name and allow the bereaved to continue discussion about the deceased if they wish. Many bereaved report feeling isolated. You can help by including them in your social groups. Contact with the grieving is most important during the period right after the death and in the three or four months following when the bereaved feel especially isolated. Reach out and make your presence felt.

We purchase all forms of insurance to protect our family & assets, not because we expect the worst to happen, but to be prepared. Doesn't it make sense then to prepare for what will happen. Let our trained counselors assist you with the many options available in planning for a worry-free future.
