Communion brunch on tap

Church of the Assumption of Our Lady, Fairport — The annual Mother/Daughter Communion Brunch will be held Sunday, April 24, at 11 a.m., at the Green Lantern Inn.

Tickets for the brunch are $6.50 for adults and $4.50 for girls under 12. For information, call Mary Buttarazzi at (716)223-0474.

Eucharistic workshop slated

St. Patrick's, Owego — The parish will hold a workshop for eucharistic ministers on Saturday, April 30, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The workshop is designed to give people a clearer understanding of the role and function of eucharistic ministers.

For information, call Father Scott Kubinski at (607)687-1068.

Anniversary Mass scheduled

Our Lady of Victory, Rochester — To celebrate Father George Rosenkranz's 50th anniversary as a member of the Congregation of the Redemptorists, the parish is planning a special Mass for Saturday, April 30. The liturgy will be followed by a dinner/reception at the Holiday Inn Genesee Plaza.

Admission to the church for the liturgy will be by ticket only, due to limited space. For information or tickets, stop by the rectory at 210 Pleasant St. or call (716)454-2244.

Mission to focus on renewal

Our Lady of Good Counsel, Rochester — Father Christopher Lynch, CP, will direct the parish's mission, scheduled for Saturday, April 30, through Thursday, May 5. The mission will focus on personal renewal and spiritual growth.

Father Lynch, a full-time mission director, has been involved with the Passionists Fathers' radio program, "Crossroads," and has worked in youth ministry. The mission will include a teen Mass and social on Sunday, May 1.

All events are free and open to the public. For information, call the rectory at (716)235-1130.

Parish plans memorial Mass

Immaculate Conception, Ithaca — The parish will celebrate a Mass in memory of the late Father John S. Maloney on April 21, at 7:30 p.m. Father Maloney, who died February 26, was the parish's pastor/administrator from 1960 to 1975.

Father John Hayes will be the homilist. All are welcome.

The following Holy Cross School students won awards in the school's science fair, held March 22: Heather Fahey and Matthew Hoffman, first places; Dan Bachman and Amy Webber, second places; and Kelly LaDue, Lisa Stuhler and Tom Agostinelli, third places.

Seventh- and eighth-grade students at St. Ambrose School participated in a science fair February 3. Carolyn Dechaine won the Best of the Show award. First-place winners were: Daniel Wilson, Lee Bonnewell, Marie Messina, David Wojtczak, Eric Zeigler, Robert Herbert and Sarah Murkett.

At the Nazareth College Science Congress on March 19, several of these students won additional awards. Dechaine received an honors citation and a Merrill Scientific Award in chemistry, Messina earned an honorable mention and a Merrill Award in physics, and Wilson was awarded a University of Rochester Science Award in earth science. Two other St. Ambrose students, Laurie Lash and Joseph Callahan, won honorable mentions in biology and physics, respectively.

Cardinal Mooney High School's Forensic Team took second place in team competition in the Genesee Valley Forensic League Championships held at McQuaid High School, Saturday, March 5. In addition to the team award, six Cardinal Mooney students placed and earned the right to go on to the nationals, to be held in New Orleans May 27-29. Shannon Wilson and Robert Ellis took first, while Kevin Aman and Micky Haugh placed third in duo interpretation of drama. Lori Dudek won third place in original oratory, and Anne Marie White finished third in the Lincoln-Douglas Debates.

Parish Notes

Parish plans homeless benefit

Corpus Christi, Rochester — The parish is sponsoring a "Hike for the Homeless" on Saturday, April 30. Funds raised through the event will be used to support Dimitri House, the parish's outreach program for the homeless.

The hike will not only raise funds for the existing shelter, counseling and food-distribution services offered by Dimitri House, it will also help finance the opening of three apartments for transitional housing beginning June 5. These apartments will provide five to seven homeless individuals with longer-term housing as they search for permanent housing and go through job-training and social-service programs.

For information about becoming a walker or a sponsor, call the rectory at (716)325-2424 or Dimitri House at 325-1796.

Rosary society plans banquet

St. Michael's, Union Springs — The Altar and Rosary Society will hold its annual banquet on Wednesday, May 4, at Lasca's Restaurant in Auburn, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

All ladies of the church are invited. The price per person will be $9.25. For information or reservations, call Jean Staehr at (315)889-7336 by April 24.

Polka dance party scheduled

St. Stanislaus, Rochester — The Holy Name of Jesus Society is sponsoring a polka dance party on April 23 from 8 to 12 p.m. in the St. Stanislaus Auditorium. The Krew Brothers from Buffalo will perform.

Tickets for the BYOB dance are $6 per person. For information, call (716)467-1257.

Women's pastoral talk slated

St. John the Evangelist, Rochester — The adult education committee will host a presentation on the recently released draft of the U.S. Catholic Bishops' pastoral letter on women's concerns, "Partners in the Mystery of Redemption," Tuesday, April 26, in the school. The guest speaker will be Judith O'Brien, chairwoman of the diocesan Commission on Women.

The event is free and open to the public. For information, call Kay Ambrose at (716)442-5331.

Neighbors

Four students of St. Theodore's School have earned academic scholarships from Rochester Catholic high schools for the 1988/89 school year. Kathryn Kieffer, Paula Blackburn and David Pawlowski received scholarships from Cardinal Mooney High School, while Mario Fallone was awarded a scholarship by Aquinas Institute.

Bridget Sexton, a 1986 graduate of Our Lady of Mercy High School, earned a varsity letter as a member of the John Carroll University women's swimming team. The team won its third consecutive President's Athletic Conference title, with Sexton placing 11th in the one-meter dive.

Students at St. Joseph's School, Penfield, raised $4,300 in pledges for the Genesee Valley Chapter of the American Heart Association through a Jump-Rope-a-Thon held Monday, March 14. The event, which also took place at 42 other Rochester-area schools, involved 114 St. Joseph students.

Eight Nazareth Academy students have been awarded Regents College Scholarships. The award entitles each recipient to $250 a year for up to five years of study in an approved program in New York state.

The Nazareth Academy winners are: Nancy Bush, Sally DeCarolis, Ann Michelle Perricelli, Barbara Piane, Amelia Sauter, Margaret Savvyko, Jeannine Sojka and Mary Staropoli.
