Pre-Pentecost week of prayer focuses on diversity of gifts

St. John the Evangelist/St. Patrick's, Clyde — The parishes will observe a pre-Pentecost week of prayer and reflection on the gifts of the Holy Spirit, Monday, May 16 through Friday, May 20. The theme of the week is "A Diversity of Gifts within the One Church."

Events for the week include: a sung Eucharist according to the Byzantine Rite of the Ukrainian Church; a talk about the gifts of the Spirit Hispanic Catholics can bring to the Church in the United States; a discussion of how to develop the gifts God has given each person, and an anointing service; the induction of a parishioner as a lay associate of the Sisters of Mercy; and a discussion about the spiritual gifts Afro-Americans have to share.

Each night, a liturgy coordinated with the topic to be covered will be celebrated at 7:30 in St. John's Church. A reception in the school hall will follow each liturgy/talk, except on Wednesday.

All activities during the week are open to the public. For information, call St. John's rectory at (315)923-3941.

Sixties dance to benefit school

St. Margaret Mary's, Rochester — The Home School and Athletic Association will present their fifth annual Sock Hop on Friday, May 13 at 8 p.m. in the school gym. All proceeds will go to support the school's programs.

Music from the '60s — along with some contemporary hits — will be provided by the "Screamin' Seagull Rock & Soul Revue," a group consisting of former members of local bands of the 60s, and which includes a five-man horn section. In addition, a number of guest performers will play with the group, including the Dady Brothers, Jay Capozzi, Chuck Brucato, Danny Labbate, Bob D'Andrea, Flora Allen and Ellen Knechtges. Also appearing in the program will be WVOR's Dan Guilfoyle, the Showvinistics and the Showvinettes.

Ticket price is $5 in advance, $6 at the door. The price includes refreshments. You must be 21 or older to attend.

For tickets or information, call Tom O'Neill at (716)266-2491.

Mass of reparation planned

St. Thomas the Apostle, Rochester — A Mass of reparation for sins against the unborn will be celebrated at the church on Saturday, May 21, at noon.

At 11 a.m., prior to the Mass, Dr. Kenneth J. Berkes of Penn Yan will speak in the school hall on the necessity of reparation. Berkes will discuss his own experiences as a physician in a partnership which performed abortions, his growing opposition to abortion, and his eventual departure from the partnership because of this opposition.

Both the talk and the Mass are open to the public. For information, call Greg Sampson at (716)342-3146 or 588-5257.

The Monroe County Chapter of the Catholic War Veterans held its annual Easter party at St. Andrew's School Auditorium on April 2. The children who attended were treated to a clown/magic show, and received candy, toys, stuffed animals, doughnuts and other refreshments. Proceeds from the party will be used for veterans' activities at Canandaigua Veterans Hospital, for the annual essay contest, and for charitable activities throughout the year.

Cardinal Mooney High School announced that senior Tammy Jaynes has won three scholarships: a St. John Fisher College Presidential Scholarship; a Spanish Language Scholarship; and a Gannett National Merit Scholarship. Jaynes earned the scholarships based on her Scholastic Aptitude Test scores, her grades and her class standing.

Richard S. Hillman, chairman of the political science department at St. John Fisher College, has been named the first Vere C. Bird Senior Professor of International Studies. Created in honor of the Antiguan Prime Minister, the professorship is funded by the Inter Maritime Foundation, which also sponsors a series of guest lectures at the college, as well as scholarships for Antiguan students attending St. John Fisher. As one of the duties of the professorship, Hillman will act in an advisory capacity to the director of the college's International Studies Program.

Hillman, a former Fulbright Scholar, has taught at the college since 1971. He holds a bachelor's degree in political philosophy from Bates College in Maine, a master's degree in Hispanic studies from the University of Madrid and a doctorate in Latin American politics from New York University.

SUNSHINE, TOO, an outreach program sponsored by the National Technical Institute for the Deaf at RIT, performed at St. Theodore's School on Friday, March 25. The company — consisting of three deaf and three hearing performers — performed in sign language and spoken English to promote deaf awareness among the students and to provide a positive role model for interaction between deaf and hearing people.

Sister Susan Nowak, SSJ, has been voted one of Ten Outstanding Young Women of America for 1987. Sister Nowak, currently pursuing a doctoral degree in theology at Catholic University of America, is being honored for her many civic contributions, her academic and professional excellence, and her work with the diocesan mission team in Tabasco, Mexico.

She has taught theology at Nazareth Academy, was a teaching assistant at Temple University, and served on the Diocese of Rochester's Peace and Justice Commission.

During a February visit to Rome, two Aquinas students — Roseann Perotto and Phil Russo — presented Pope John Paul II with an Aquinas jacket and hat. The students were part of a group of Aquinas students, parents and teachers who were touring Rome and the surrounding area. The audience with the pope was arranged by Father Tom Rosica, a Basilian studying in Rome, whose mother was one of the Aquinas teachers.

Nazareth College senior Susan A. Shaheen of Gates has been awarded the 1988 Eisenhower Scholarship given by the Rochester branch of the English-speaking Union of the United States. The scholarship provides $3,300 for six weeks of summer graduate study in Britain. Shaheen, who is majoring in both English and political science at Nazareth, will enroll at Oxford University to pursue a course in British literature, history and society from 1870 to the present. Her program will include 56 lectures by Oxford academic staff and visiting professors.

In the National Latin Competition sponsored in March by the American Classical League, five Cardinal Mooney High School students won awards.

Tammy Jaynes scored 34 out of a possible 40 points to earn a maxima cum laude and a silver pin. Winning cum laude certificates were: Sharon Braun, Christine Callahan and Michelle Steiger in Latin I; and Susan Wegman in Latin II. A total of 60,000 students took part in the competition.

Robert Flaherty has been named chairman of the newly created Development Council at Bishop Kearney High School. Also named to the council were: Richard Bell; Sister Evelyn Breslin, SSND; Thomas Cusker; Arnold Eckert; Catherine X. Griffin; Donald R. Griffin; John J. Johnson, CFC; and Barry Sullivan. The council will develop policy and build support for the school in the areas of student recruitment, public relations and alumni activities.
