Parishioners to honor pastor

St. Ambrose, Rochester — The parish will celebrate Father James J. Marvin's 40th anniversary of ordination to the priesthood with two events on the weekend of June 3-5.

Friday, June 3, a dinner/dance will take place at Marvin's Country Club, Macedon. The cocktail hour will begin at 6:30 p.m., dinner will be served at 8, and dancing will commence at 10. Tickets for the dinner cost $10, and may be reserved by calling the rectory at (716)288-5000.

Bishop Joseph L. Hogan will preach at a special anniversary Mass in the church; Sunday, June 5, at 11:30 a.m. A reception will follow in the school.

Anniversary celebration slated

St. Theodore's, Rochester — On Thursday, June 2, the parish will hold a reception to honor Father Gerald E. Dunn's 40th anniversary of ordination to the priesthood and 20th anniversary as pastor of the parish.

The reception, which will be held in the school hall from 7:30 to 10 p.m., is open to all.

Festival to feature road race

St. Christopher's, North Chili — "Rainbow Fest '88" will take place Friday, June 3, and Saturday, June 4, on the church grounds. The festival will include children's games and a variety of food booths.

A highlight of the festival will be the 11th annual road race, a five-mile event scheduled to begin Saturday at 6:45 p.m. Awards will be presented to the winners in different age groups. The entry fee for the race is $5 in advance, $6 the day of the race.

The hours for the festival are: 6-11:30 p.m. on Friday and 6:30-11:30 p.m. Saturday.

Students in grades five through eight at St. Mary's School, Waterloo, participated in a career day on Monday, May 2. The purpose of the day was to provide the students with information on careers they were interested in, and also to expose them to occupations they may never have considered.

Individuals from the Waterloo community were invited to give presentations about their careers, which included: nursing, law, pet care, mortuary science, accounting, teaching, law enforcement, hair styling, truck transport, religious life, engineering, lab technician, and mechanics.

Nazareth Academy students earned several awards in the National Latin Competition sponsored in March by the American Classical League and the National Junior Classical League. Amy Attridge won a gold medal and a summa cum laude certificate. Rory Cottrell, Bridget Foran, Donna Otis and Rachelle Zambito earned silver medals and maxima cum laude certificates. Magna cum laude certificates were given to Kristine Black, Kerry Burke, Tanya Cornwell and Margaret Sawyko. Receiving cum laude certificates were Lauren Agness, Jennifer Coval, Kathleen Doran, Gina Inglema, Cindy Lipke, Marcy Needle and Carolyn Rodwell.

Cardinal Mooney senior, Alina Martinez, has been selected as a finalist in the 1988 National Hispanic Scholarship program. As a finalist, she will receive $1,500 toward her first year of college study. Martinez plans to attend Cornell University and pursue a career in bio-science.

Dawn Borgeest has been named director of public affairs at St. Mary's Hospital. She will have administrative responsibilities for public relations, communications, volunteers, and patient representation. A St. John Fisher College graduate, she comes to St. Mary's from the United Way of Greater Rochester, where she was vice-president of communications.

At the Bishop's Day with Youth, April 24, Jim Sonner of St. Patrick's Parish, Corning, was among those who received the Hands Of Christ Award. The awards, which recognize high school seniors who have been an example for others of what being a Catholic means today, were presented by Bishop Matthew H. Clark.

Parish Notes

Sun-and-fun festival scheduled

Church of the Good Shepherd, Henrietta — The parish will hold its "Sun-and-Fun Fest" Friday, June 3, from 6 to 11 p.m., and Saturday, June 4, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The festival will include a variety of food and handicrafts booths. At 1 p.m. on Saturday, children under 12 are invited to participate in a kiddie costume parade. Henrietta town officials will judge the parade and a king and queen will be chosen.

In conjunction with the festival, the parish will sponsor a garage sale June 3, 4 and 5. The garage sale will begin daily at 9 a.m. On the 3rd and the 4th, it will end at 9 p.m., and on the 5th at 3 p.m.

Anyone interested in donating an item for the garage sale should call Clarence Rogers in care of the rectory, (716)334-3518, to arrange for pick-up.

Parish plans festival/auction

St. Mary Our Mother, Horseheads — The annual parish festival will be held on the church grounds Friday, June 3, from 5 to 11 p.m., and Saturday, June 4, 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Events both days will include continuous entertainment, crafts, a cake booth and rides. New and used goods will be auctioned Saturday, beginning at 9 a.m. and continuing until all items are sold.

A fish fry will be featured Friday night, and a barbecued chicken dinner will be served Saturday, 3 to 8 p.m. Throughout the festival, pizza, pierogis, cotton candy, pizza frita, sausage, hot dogs and other foods will be available.

Neighbors

The Women's Ordination Conference honored Anne Mary Dooley, SSJ, Joan Sobala, SSJ, and Rosalie Muschal-Reinhardt for their leadership role in launching the WOC and the feminist movement in the Roman Catholic Church. The three were named "Prophetic Figures" at an awards ceremony held in Washington, D.C., on April 16. They were cited by the organization as being instrumental in prompting the National Conference of Catholic Bishops to begin their pastoral letter on the concerns of women, "Partners in the Mystery of Redemption."

Pope John Paul II greets Father John F. Gagnier on his 10th anniversary of ordination after a Mass celebrated at the papal residence with a group of American priests. Father Gagnier is parochial vicar at St. Patrick's, Seneca Falls.

A dinner was held April 14 at the Burgundy Basin Inn to honor James M. Maloney, who retired April 1 as the executive director of the Catholic Family Center. The agency's chief executive since 1970, Maloney had overseen dramatic growth and improvement in the center's basic service as well as clinical services for children, adults and the elderly.

Over the years, Maloney also worked with CFC staff to develop innovative programs in child abuse prevention, refugee legalization and elderly nutrition.
