to have included stops at defense industries located in Tioga County.

At a press conference in Owego later that day, Bishop Clark, Glenna Wickline of the Tioga County Social Ministry Committee, and Bob Hildebrand of the housing department of the Tioga Opportunities Program, told the media about the needs of the rural poor and questioned the federal government's spending priorities.

Wickline said the bishops' pastoral letter on peace states "that moneys going to pay for military expenditures don't meet people's needs." According to Wickline, military spending since 1980 has increased 166 per cent, while spending for housing has decreased 62 per cent.

The question of spending priorities is an important one the Southern Tier, Wickline observed, "because this is an area where military products and support systems are a big part of the economy." She urged local industries to become leaders in economic conversion from military production to civilian production.

Hildebrand more directly addressed the issue of rural housing, saying that one problem area is lack of money for house repairs.

Even if this money were appropriated today, Hildebrand said, it would take as much as two to three years to prepare deteriorated residences for occupancy. He urged immediate allocation of state and federal funds for the repair of existing units in an effort to meet the chronic housing shortage. To illustrate his point, he noted that 257 individuals or families are now on Tioga Opportunities Program's waiting list for housing assistance.

At the close of the event, Dubel acknowledged that the abbreviated tour had limited impact, but said it was significant that coverage from participating media outlets would raise the housing issue to a public level. In addition, she said, "Just to have the bishop come down was very affirming."

Through such media attention, Southern Tier leaders hope that the state and federal governments will experience greater pressure to provide financial support for housing and other social-ministry programs, Dubel said.

"What we're looking for are the kinds of things that can happen when the will is there and the dollars are there," Dubel concluded.

Brother Beh to be honored for service to retreat house

Brother Benjamin Beh, CSsR, who has served on the staff at Notre Dame Retreat House for the last 11 years, will be transferred to a Redemptorist retirement villa effective June 15.

To honor his years of service at the Canandaigua retreat center, a reception will be held at Notre Dame Sunday, June 5, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Born in Webster in 1907, Brother Beh joined the Redemptorist Order on March 15, 1934. For the next 33 years, he served in various institutions in Pennsylvania, Maryland and New York. On July 1, 1977, he was assigned to Notre Dame, where he served as general sacristan. Over the years, he became a familiar figure along Canandaigua's streets as he made daily visits to the post office, drug store, market and bakery.

After June 11, Brother Beh may be contacted at St. Alphonsus Villa, 318 North Riverside Drive, Box 548, New Smyrna Beach, Fla., 32069.

Knights of Columbus plan Marian-Year Mass, rosary

In honor of the Marian Year, the Finger Lakes Chapter of the Knights of Columbus has planned a Mass and rosary on Sunday, May 29, at 3 p.m. at the Dome Center in Henrietta.

Father Eamon Carroll, a well-known Marian scholar and a member of the faculty of Loyola University, will deliver an address during the celebration.

All clergy are cordially invited to celebrate. Please bring alb and stole.

The St. John Neumann Columbiettes will decorate the altar for the Marian Day of Prayer.

Information meetings set for two Rochester churches

Two forums for people who are seeking information on the Billy Graham Crusade coming to Rochester next September have been scheduled for two Rochester-area churches in June.

These sessions will offer an opportunity to answer any questions regarding the visit by Rev. Graham, and will clarify the Roman Catholic involvement in the crusade effort — particularly from the point of view of evangelization and hospitality.

The meetings will take place at Holy Name of Jesus Church, St. Martin's Way, Rochester, on June 1 and at Church of the Transfiguration, 50 W. Bloomfield Road, Pittsford. Both meetings will take place from 7:30 to 9 p.m. All are welcome.

Caregivers plan meeting for Presbyterian Church

A support group on "Coping Skills for Caregivers of the Elderly" has planned its next meeting for Friday, May 27, from 10 a.m. to noon at 34 Meigs St., Rochester.

Call (716)454-3224, ext. 112, for information.

Donations of flowers for the Mass and the Living Rosary are urgently needed. Flowers may be brought to the Dome Arena on May 29, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Roses are especially needed for the Living Rosary.

Call (716)671-5520 (days) or 671-6047 (evenings) for information.

Wine-tasting party set for MCC campus in June

More than 250 wines and champagnes from around the world will be sampled at St. Mary's 12th annual wine tasting party on Friday, June 3, from 7 to 10 p.m. in Building Three on the Monroe Community College campus.

Domestic wines and champagnes from California and New York will be among the offerings, as well as imported wines and champagnes from France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Australia and Portugal. An assortment of gourmet hors d'oeuvres, desserts and specialty coffees will also be available.

Tickets for the wine tasting are available by calling (716)454-3255. Tickets are $15 per person and must be purchased in advance.

Proceeds from the evening will benefit the departments of obstetrics and surgery at St. Mary's Hospital.

Fr. Joseph Hart to return to Cenacle Center in June

The Cenacle Center recently announced that Father Joseph Hart, associate professor of theology at St. Bernard's Institute, will lead a retreat weekend June 3-5. The theme of the retreat, which will run from 7:30 p.m. Friday evening through Sunday at noon, will be "Prayer: A Way of Living."

The suggested offering is $60. Call (716)271-8755 for information.
