Festival features entertainment

St. Michael's, Newark — Musical and dancing performances as well as a Father's Day barbecue will highlight the parish's annual festival June 17 through 19.

The folk group and a Dixieland band will perform on Friday, June 17. Saturday night's entertainment will include music from the folk group and dancing by the Piney Mountain Cloggers. The barbecue will take place Sunday, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The festival will also include food booths, games of skill, and rides for children.

The hours for the festival are: June 17, 5 to 11 p.m.; June 18, 7:30 a.m. to 11 p.m.; and June 19, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Strawberry festival planned

St. Mary's, Dansville — A Strawberry Festival will be held in the school hall on June 26 from 12:30 to 5:30 p.m. The festival will feature strawberry shortcake and ice cream with strawberries. Strawberry pies, homemade crafts and other items will be for sale. In addition, a cookbook featuring parishioners' favorite strawberry recipes will be sold.

For information about the festival, call the rectory at (716)335-2700.

Marian celebration scheduled

St. Mary's, Canandaigua — The parish will have a special Marian celebration on Saturday, June 25, from 1 to 4 p.m. The celebration will include a Mass, recitation of the rosary, exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Benediction, and confessions.

The celebration is open to all. For more information, call the rectory at (716)394-1220.

Parishes plan to honor pastor

St. Pius V, Cohocton/Sacred Heart, Perkinsville — The parishes have planned a farewell liturgy and reception in honor of departing pastor Father Ronald Harley on Sunday, June 26.

The liturgy will take place at 10:30 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church — the 9 a.m. Mass at St. Pius V will be cancelled. A coffee hour will follow the liturgy, and a reception for all parishioners will take place from 2 to 4 p.m. in Sturmer Hall, Cohocton.

Participants in the second annual Camp Good Days and Special Times Basketball Tournament raised a total of $4,730 for the camp. The high school division players and cheerleaders from St. Pius X, Chili, brought in $1,600 in donations, leading all other teams. The basketball tournament winners were: Holy Cross (high school); St. John's, Spencerport (seventh- and eighth-grade boys); St. Pius X (seventh- and eighth-grade girls); and Holy Rosary (fifth- and sixth-grade boys and girls).

First-grade teacher Joan Doyle displays Bartholomew D.E.A.R. (Drop Everything And Read), the mascot of St. Joseph's reading program, to her students Stephanie Gullen (left), Morgan Bida, Brian Meyer and Leslie Howlett.

Students at St. Joseph School, Penfield, completed a seven-week "Parents as Reading Partners Program" on March 17. The program asks parents to read with their children for 15 minutes a day, five days a week. For each week of the program in which students completed the reading requirements, they received rewards ranging from stickers, pencils, and bookmarks to a dress-down day.

St. Mary's Hospital has named Janet Fink as its new vice president for clinical and support services. She will have administrative responsibility for the clinical departments — laboratory, respiratory therapy, pharmacy, radiology, physical therapy, and the departments of medicine and surgery — and such support services as housekeeping, engineering, dietary, security, clinical engineering and materials management. A graduate of Cornell University, Fink formerly served as administrative director of ambulatory services at the Genesee Hospital.

Parish Notes

Centennial booklet planned

Holy Rosary, Rochester — In preparation for its centennial next year, the parish is seeking anecdotes and pictures to compile a booklet. The stories and pictures could be about the church, its priests, the school, teachers, pupils, parishioners and even neighbors.

The photos and written accounts should be sent to William Murphy, care of the rectory, 414 Lexington Avenue, Rochester 14613.

All materials will be returned to their owners after publication of the booklet.

Class of '48 schedules reunion

Holy Rosary, Rochester — Members of the school's class of 1948 are invited to a 40th reunion to be held in October, 1988.

Reunion organizers are currently attempting to locate members of the class. All those with information about class members, or those wishing to learn more about the reunion, should contact Dick Kirsh, 260 Brayton Rd., Rochester 14616.

Parish to celebrate centennial

St. Francis Xavier, Rochester — The parish will mark its 100th year on Friday, October 29, with a 5 p.m. Mass in the church, followed by dinner/dance at the Mapledale Party House.

Tickets cost $15 and are now available by contacting Rose Marciano (716)342-6142; Florence LaRosa 188-1922; or Mary D'Amore 288-4858.

Parish plans farewell dinner

St. Francis de Sales, Geneva — A farewell dinner for departing pastor Father Edwin B. Metzger will be held in Club 86, North Genesee St., Geneva, at 6 p.m. on Sunday, June 19.

For information or tickets, call Anthony Chiarilli at (315)789-7003, or Mary Rogers at 789-5868.

Neighbors

Jennifer Fellingner of St. Theodore's School won second place in the Catholic Daughters of the Americas Education Contest, art division I. She received her award at an awards night May 17.

Anna Nolfi of St. Thomas More Parish received the Casa Italiana Award from Nazareth College at the 10th anniversary Primavera Ball. During the ball, which took place May 14 at the Rochester Plaza Hotel, Nolfi was honored as "a noted language educator, author and administrator well-known for her contributions to the teaching of foreign languages during her distinguished career." She was also cited for her active participation in local organizations devoted to the betterment of the community and the improvement of intercultural understanding.

Brother James P. Hamilton, CFC, will profess his final vows in the Congregation of Christian Brothers during a Mass of final profession at Holy Family Church, New Rochelle, on Saturday, June 18. A graduate of St. Thomas the Apostle School and Bishop Kearney High School, Brother Hamilton entered the congregation in 1978.

He earned a degree in Spanish from Iona College, New Rochelle, in 1982. Following graduation, he taught for three years at Catholic Memorial High School in West Roxbury, Mass., and two years at Rice High School, New York City. In 1987 he was assigned to the pioneer community at St. John Neumann High School in Naples, Fla., where he teaches religious studies, Spanish, typing, and serves as activities director and coach of varsity baseball. This summer, Brother Hamilton will complete a master's degree in religious education at St. Michael's College, Winooski, Vermont.
