Legion plans trip to shrine

St. Patrick's, Corning — The Legion of Mary has scheduled a trip to the Fatima Shrine in Youngstown, N.Y., July 15-16. Participants will be staying in a hotel in Canada overlooking Niagara Falls. The cost, including room and bus, will be $58 for double occupancy, $88 for single occupancy. The trip is open to all. For information, call Gertrude Scheer at (607)936-8098.

Trip to feature rosary rally

Immaculate Conception, Ithaca — A bus will be traveling from the parish to the Martyrs Shrine in Auriesville, N.Y., for a rosary rally with Auxiliary Bishop Austin B. Vaughn of New York on Sunday, July 17. Tickets for the trip cost $15. For information or to reserve a seat, call either Julia Kennedy at (607)272-7822 or Mary DeLong at 539-7421.

Parish picnic approaches

St. Patrick's, Owego — The parish's annual picnic is scheduled for July 10. A pavilion has been reserved at Hickories Park. Volunteers are needed to help coordinate preparations. For information or to volunteer, call the rectory at (607)687-1068.

Summer day camp set to open

St. Gregory's, Marion/St. Anne's, Palmyra — A summer day camp for children in grades one through five will be offered at St. Anne's Center, Palmyra, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Thursday, July 11 through August 11. The cost of the camp is $28 per week. Sessions will include swimming lessons and recreational swimming. For information or to register, call (315)597-9694.

Parish Notes

Parish schedules devotions

Immaculate Conception, Ithaca — The parish will have exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and first-Saturday devotions on Saturday, July 2. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will begin after the 7 a.m. Mass and end with Benediction, prior to the regular 9 a.m. first-Saturday Mass in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Recitation of the rosary will follow the Mass.

Pierogi makers in demand

St. Stanislaus, Rochester — The festival committee is looking for volunteers to work booths and to help make pierogis for the parish festival, scheduled for August 5-7. Pierogi making will begin the final week of June. In addition to volunteers to chop, stir, mix, fold, and wash dishes, the parish is requesting donations of ingredients or money to buy them. Volunteers should call either Dick Clar at (716)467-2925 or Bill Lovett at 467-1153.

Vacation Bible School nears

St. Patrick's, Corning — The parish's vacation Bible school will operate July 11-15 from 9 to 11:30 a.m. for students in kindergarten through ninth grade. The theme for this year's program is "Jesus loves me." Sessions will consist of crafts, songs, stories and refreshments. For information, call (607)936-3163.

Gail A. Balcerzak, Christine S. Crooker, and Roger B. Jestel of Cardinal Mooney High School are among 38 students nationally — and 29 locally — to receive 1988 Kodak Scholarship awards. The scholarships, given to the sons and daughters of Kodak employees, are renewable and provide each recipient with funds for four years of full-time study or until completion of a bachelor's degree, whichever comes first. Recipients are identified and recommended for awards by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

The American Chemical Society has honored the following Aquinas Institute students for superior achievement in chemistry: Peter Kondorf, Stan Ewing, Michele Cerra, Bill Humnicky, John Burke, Mark Cascino, Ellen Stoffel, Chris McDonald, Jay Arieno, Dan May, Dan Van Slyke, Lisa Thomas, Eric Whalen, Scott Allocco, Chris Plane, Robin Rand, and Eric Freemesser.

Ken Marentette was presented with a plaque for being the top chemistry student at Aquinas with an average of 100 for the year. Marentette has also been named a winner of a United States Achievement Academy award for science. He was nominated for the award by V. E. Goetting, head of Aquinas' science department.

Cardinal Mooney High School senior Dusty Tinsley has been awarded a University of Rochester Alumni Centennial Scholarship based on her academic and athletic accomplishments. She has also received a Field Hockey Scholarship to the University of Eastern Kentucky.

Aquinas theology teacher Pat Connelly will be part of a team excavating a site on the banks of the Yarkon River in Israel from June 26 to July 22. The site is at Tel Gerisa, a large, Bronze-Age city. The team will also work at an Iron-Age village found alongside the same river.

Neighbors

Mercy Sisters Maureen Servas and Joanne Bringley will leave July 4 to participate in a Third World Experience in Chile. The two will live with 12 Rochester Sisters of Mercy serving as missionaries in Santiago. Sister Servas is director of campus ministry and a teacher at Our Lady of Mercy High School. Sister Bringley is a teacher at St. Andrew's School, Rochester.

At St. Pius V Parish's annual Mother/Daughter Banquet, parishioner Dot Burke received the Woman of the Year Award. Burke was recognized for her faith, service to the parish and continued willingness to grow.

Bishop Matthew H. Clark just after launching a balloon as part of St. Joseph School's Peace Day, May 13. More than 1100 students from St. Joseph's, Annunciation, St. Andrew's and St. John the Evangelist participated in the day-long event which included a Mass, prayers for world peace, songs and hymns of peace in several languages, peacemaker awards and a picnic lunch.

The Society of Distinguished American High School Students has selected 13 Cardinal Mooney High School students as members of its honor society for 1988. The students are: Christine Crooker, Jennifer Deutsch, Debbie De Feo, Michele Farone, Tammy Jaynes, Valerie King, Joanne Leavitt, Herbert Lester, Alina Martinez, Peter Miller, David Nesbitt, Dainius Vidmantas, and Ann Marie White. The students are eligible to compete for college scholarships through the society's National Awards Program.
