Sister Mary Frederica Konz, RSM, native of Naples, at 86

Sister Mary Frederica Konz, a Sister of Mercy for 69 years, died Thursday, June 6, at the Mercy congregation's motherhouse in Brighton after a long illness. She was 86.

Mary Antonia Konz was born in Naples, N.Y., where she entered the Sisters of Mercy from St. Januarius Parish at age 16. Taking as her religious name Sister Mary Frederica, she professed her perpetual vows in 1924.

Sister Konz taught in diocesan schools for 30 years. Her first teaching assignment came at St. Ann's School in Hornell, where she Rochester, The conference, entitled "Medicine, Law and Morality: Focus on AIDS," will examine the medical, ethical moral and legal challenges AIDS poses for the community.

Open to all health care professionals and the general public, the conference is designed to increase understanding of AIDS patients' needs, the care they require and how to cope with the course of the disease.

Topics will include the facts and fallacies of AIDS, the role of the health care professional, psychosocial aspects of AIDS and living with AIDS.

The conference will be co-sponsored by St. Mary's Hospital, St. Bernard's Institute, and the Catholic Physicians' Guild. Dr. Fernando Ona of St. Mary's Hospital and Dr. William Valenti of the University of Rochester are codirectors of the conference.

The registration fee is $10, which includes a continental breakfast and lunch. Preregistration is required and space is limited. Call (716)454-3519 for information.

Sister Konz was the supervisor at St. Joseph's School in Penfield beginning in 1960, and taught there for seven years.

She cared for ill members of her family until 1974, when she became the housekeeper at Omega-Mendon Manor, a former home for retired priests in Mendon.

Sister Konz was admitted to Lourdes Hall in 1987.

She is survived by her brother, Nick Konz, of Naples; two sisters, Elizabeth Vierhile, also of Naples, and Ann Piefer of Canandaigua; and three nephews.

Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated at the motherhouse on Saturday, June 18. Interment was at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery in Rochester.

Stella Maris now registering for summer camp programs

Camp Stella Maris, which is located 30 miles south of Rochester on the eastern shore of Conesus Lake, is accepting registrations for its summer camp programs.

The one and two-week programs for children and young adults aged seven to 16 begin July 3 and will run through August 26.

Campers will have the opportunity to take part in a variety of recreational activities including sailing, wind surfing, water skiing, swimming and fishing. This year's camp features a new health center.

Camp Stella Maris, which has offered resident camping programs for the past 61 years, is owned by the Rochester diocese and is certified by the American Camping Association. Call (716)346-2243 for information.
