Historical revue

Our Child Care Programs Come In All Sizes

If you designed a child care program for your son or daughter, you'd make it just like the YMCA's - with lots of individual attention, convenient hours and locations, responsible adult leadership and New York State licensed Day Care teachers.

We have programs for infants as young as two months and for children right through to age twelve. We have Day Care, Before and After School Care, Kindergarten* and Preschool Enrichment classes.

We're more than play equipment. Our programs instill values, provide role models, and we've had years of experience. Come visit your neighborhood YMCA and find out why we're the largest provider of child care in Monroe County.
