

Defenses dominate Meath game as East nips West

By Richard A. Kiley

McQuaid head football coach Tom Sprague predicted last week that if the East were to beat the West in the sixth Eddie Meath All Star game Saturday, August 6, the talented corps of East linebackers would have to take advantage of any mistakes made by the multi-faceted West offense.

Linebacker John Winship of Fairport obliged the East assistant coach in front of 5,000 fans at Fauver Stadium with a key interception return for a touchdown in the third quarter to propel the East to a 15-9 win over the West in the annual last hurrah for former Section V grid players.

Winship's interception came midway through the third quarter with the East leading 9-3. The 6-foot-1, 190-pound linebacker stepped in front of a short pass over the middle from Jeff Walsh of Hornell and scampered 36 yards into the end zone.

For his efforts, Winship was named the outstanding defensive player for the East all stars.

The East — which has won the grid classic for three consecutive years — holds a 4-2 lead in the series that benefits the Eddie Meath Children's Fund.

For the second consecutive year, defense dominated the game. Although the West had the more renowned skill players on offense, it was the East that got the job done when it had the ball — especially on its first possession.

East Rochester's Bill Bagley, who was questionable for the game after sustaining a knee injury in practice earlier in the week, scored the East's lone touchdown on offense when he rumbled into the end zone from the one.

Bagley led all runners with 75 yards rushing and was named the East's outstanding offensive player.

Newark's Robert Nicoletta directed the East on the 72-yard scoring drive to open the game. The former quarterback for the Reds, who finished the season with an 8-1 record last fall, came out throwing on the game's first four plays. Completions for gains of 11 and 29 yards to Pittsford's Chris Hill moved the East to the West 32-yard line, before Nicoletta hooked up with Fairport's John Barr at the 22.

Two plays after rushing 12 yards to the 10-yard-line of the West, Bagley scored from the one.

The East drove deep into West territory once again in the second quarter, but had to settle for a 24-yard field goal by McQuaid's Kevin Flanagan to make the score 9-0. Irondequoit's Rob Snedden cut the lead to 9-3 when he kicked a 31-yarder for the West a few minutes later. Snedden's boot set a new Eddie Meath All Star game record.

The West mustered its only touchdown of the game with 2:12 left on the clock, when Walsh teamed up with Aquinas' Mark Chapman — playing wide receiver for the first and last time in his outstanding high school career — for a 33-yard pass.

Chapman hopes do more of the same for the University of Connecticut, which has given him a scholarship to play football at the Division I-AA Yankee Conference School this fall.

scored 16 points for Central.

Western dropped its opening game to New York City, 70-68. Woodard had four points in the game at Manley Field House on Thursday, August 4.

Woodard poured in 13 points to help Western beat Long Island, 88-70, at Manley Field House on Friday.

IN OTHER ACTION from the games, McQuaid's Brad Sumner finished second by two-tenths of a second in the scholastic men's 800 meters at Sunnycrest Park on Saturday, August 6. Sumner's time of 1:55.26 was his personal best, but wasn't enough to beat Adirondack's William Gathen (1:55.06).

Sumner qualified for the final race by running a 1:55.5 in the boys' semifinal. McQuaid's Scott Romanowski finished third in the scholastic men's 400-meter race with a time of

:49.44. Romanowski qualified for the final by finishing second in the semis with a time of :49:83.

In scholastic women's track and field, Laura Young of Mercy finished second in the 400 meters with a time of 1:00.41 on Saturday, August 6, but she did not finish in the top three places in the final race on Sunday.

The scholastic men's lacrosse team earned a bronze medal with an 8-7 win over Hudson Valley on Sunday, August 7. Hudson Valley trailed the game by two goals with less than a minute remaining, but found the net twice in the final 43 seconds to force overtime. The gold medal was won by Long Island after a 10-6 win over Central.
