

Mercy planning anniversary gala

Our Lady of Mercy High School, which was established as an all women's private secondary education facility, will officially kick-off its diamond anniversary on Sunday, September 18.

All Mercy alumnae, parents, students and friends are invited to attend a liturgy at noon in the Mercy auditorium, 1437 Blossom Road, Rochester. The Mass will be followed by a barbecue dinner at 1:30 p.m. on the motherhouse lawn.

The afternoon will feature musicians, clowns, games, tours and Mercy memorabilia throughout the day.

Eastman instruction set for Kearney

The Eastman School of Music of the University of Rochester and Bishop Kearney High School announced earlier this month that members of the Eastman Community Education Division faculty will be available for music instruction this school year at Bishop Kearney High School, 125 Kings Highway South, Rochester.

Lessons will be open to all interested children and adults, and will not be limited to student currently enrolled at Bishop Kearney.

Initially, instruction will be offered on Saturdays during the regular school year, when students may register for lessons on such woodwind or brass instruments as flute, saxophone, trumpet and trombone, as well as percussion lessons. Eastman also plans to offer string and piano lessons at Kearney in the near future.

The Community Education Division has been providing non-credit music instruction to children and adults in the greater Rochester area since the Eastman School of Music first opened in 1921.

Information and registration materials for Eastman instruction at Kearney can be obtained by calling (716)275-3015 or by writing Community Education Division, Eastman School of Music, 26 Gibbs St., Rochester, 14604.

Memorial scholarship aids Mooney students

Joseph Brown of Genesis Catholic Junior High School has been awarded the 1988 Peter S. Castle Scholarship at Cardinal Mooney High School. The scholarship will pay Brown's full tuition for the four years he attends the school. Other winners of the scholarship to Cardinal Mooney are: Vincent Wright, Class of '89; Andrea Diaz, Class of '90; and Heather King, Class of '91.

The Peter S. Castle Scholarship is an endowment fund which pays tuition for four Cardinal Mooney High School students each year.

The Castle Committee has raised more than $67,000 since the fund was created in 1983. The primary fundraiser is a golf tournament held on the third Monday of August.

The scholarship is granted to incoming freshmen, based on need, character and academic achievement. The first recipient, Sackda Viravong, graduated in June, 1988.

The scholarship is named after Peter S. Castle, a 1968 Cardinal Mooney graduate and a tutor in the city school district, who died in 1983.

Horseheads students receive academic awards

Bryan Lanahan and Julie Berliner were honored as the top graduates from the Class of 1988 at St. Mary Our Mother School in Horseheads. The two shared the award for overall academic excellence. Lanahan also won the awards for mathematics, social studies, and Spanish, while Berliner earned the awards for language arts, science, and community service. Roy Cleveland received the Effort Award in the pursuit of success.

Other members of the class were: Stephanie Barber, Roy Cleveland, Brenda Hayner, Ian Kavanagh, Jeffrey Reagan, Scott Ruhmel, Bridget Webster and Bryan Woodworth.

Meagher named principal of Brighton schools

Christopher Meagher has been chosen as principal of Our Lady of Lourdes/Seton Junior High School.

Meagher, a former teacher at St. James, Irondequoit, brings 17 years of professional education experience. He is a graduate of SUNY Brockport, holds a master's degree in education from Nazareth College, and is currently in the Catholic School Administrators Program at the University of Rochester.

He will head the realigned consolidated school housed in the Our Lady of Lourdes school building. This year, fourth- through sixth-grade students from Our Lady Queen of Peace, Our Lady of Lourdes and St. Thomas More Parishes will attend Our Lady of Lourdes School, while junior high students from the three parishes, along with students from St. Anne's and St. Jerome's, will attend Seton.

Parents' group forms

The newly formed DeSales High School Parents' Support Group chose their officers for the 1988-1989 school year at their June meeting. Kathy Peters of Waterloo is the chairwoman; Linda Fernandez of Clifton Springs is the vice-chairwoman; and Nancy Goodnow of Canandaigua is the secretary.

The group plans to support the school through a variety of activities: cleaning and painting the school during summers; organizing groups and clubs at the school; and recruiting new students.

For information about the group or its projects, call Peters at (315)539-8006.
