IN PRAISE OF GOD

The Dominican
Sisters of Hawthorne Servants of Relief
for Incurable Cancer

Put your faith in action. Fill your heart with His everlasting love. Experience the inner peace that comes from caring and serving selflessly.

Our apostolate is to nurse and shelter people of any race, creed or color who are incurably-ill with cancer. We provide this care in our free homes located in New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Georgia, Minnesota and Ohio. As more women join our congregation, we plan to open new homes in other states.

Not all of our sisters are nurses, but as part of our apostolate, all must directly help in the care of the patients.

Annual country fair features Elvis Presley impersonator

St. Charles Borromeo, Greece — Roman Catholics vexed by the metaphysical implications of Elvis Presley's alleged resurrection in recent years may find some insight into the issue at the parish's 10th annual country fair from Friday, Sept. 30, to Sunday, Oct. 2. John Streb, an Elvis impersonator, will be performing at a "sock hop" featuring '50s and '60s music on Friday at 8:30 p.m. in the school hall. Tickets may be bought in advance at the rectory for $4 and are $5 at the door.

The fair continues Saturday with a variety of activities in the school gym, arts and crafts stores in the school classrooms and several indoor and outdoor restaurants including German Haus, Pie Parlor and Cafe St. Charles. The fair concludes Sunday with a steamship-round-of-beef dinner in the school hall from 12-6 p.m. Tickets are $8 for adults, $7 for senior citizens, and $4 for children under 12. Tickets bought in advance at the rectory will be discounted $1. For information, call the rectory at 663-3230.

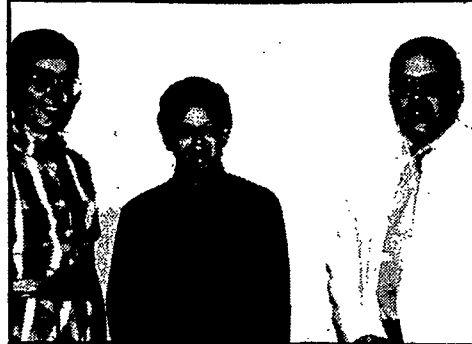

The parish's worship committee will be sponsoring a celebration of the Feast of the Holy Rosary on Friday, Oct. 7, at 7:30 p.m. The service will include hymns, an evening prayer, Gospel canticle, reflection, recitation of the rosary and benediction. For information, call Dolores Schnacky at (716)621-2505.

Next-to-new sale scheduled

Blessed Sacrament, Rochester — The parish's next-to-new sale will run from Wednesday, Oct. 5, to Saturday, Oct. 8, in the school hall. The sale will be from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Wednesday through Friday; Saturday's hours are 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Furniture, clothing, small appliances, handicrafts and numerous other items will be sold along with baked goods and homemade soup. Shoppers will also be treated to Catherine Toth's piano-playing as they browse. Parking is available in the school lot.

Parish launches RCIA

St. Mary's, Rochester — The parish begins its Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults with an informational meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 5, from 7:30-9:30 p.m. at the rectory. Roberta Kenny, pastoral assistant, is the program's facilitator and can be called at (716)232-7140 for information.

Standing between Cardinal Mooney's assistant principal, Sister Kathryn Wahl, RSM, and principal, Brother Edward Boyer, CSC, is Joseph Brown, winner of the 1988 Peter S. Castle Scholarship.

Joseph Brown, a graduate of Genesis Catholic Junior High School, is the recipient of the 1988 Peter S. Castle Scholarship. The four-year scholarship is given to an incoming freshman each year in memory of Peter Castle, an alumni of Cardinal Mooney and a tutor in the City School District. The scholarship winners are chosen with an emphasis on character, need and academic achievement.

Seven teens from St. Cecilia/St. John Parishes in Elmira participated in a week-long workcamp mission in Wheelersburg, Ohio, July 10-16. Joe Agan, Billie Sue Doan, Mark Murray, Michelle Fairbrother, Dawn Randall, Kris Shoerberlein and Tom Webb joined approximately 400 young people from across the country in repairing and weatherizing homes of the poor and elderly in the Wheelersburg area. The seven were accompanied on the trip by the parishes' youth minister, Anne Karski, and a parent, Ray Schoerberlein.

Father Donald F. Schwab covered the keynote address at the American Association for the Continuity of Care sixth annual conference, "Quality & Care — Transitions," Friday, Sept. 23, in Chicago. Father Schwab, director of pastoral care at Rochester General Hospital, spoke on the topic, "Health Care: Rites and Rights of Passage."

Parish Notes

Medjugorje apparitions to be discussed at society meeting

Our Lady of Mercy, Rochester — Father William Trott will speak about the reported appearances of the Blessed Virgin Mary at Medjugorje, Yugoslavia, at the Rosary Society meeting on Monday, Oct. 3, at 7:30 p.m. All women of the parish and friends are invited. Call Dorothy M. Janczak at (716)865-8182 for information.

Forum planned on pastoral

Good Shepherd, Henrietta — Gloria Ulterino, coordinator of family ministry and adult education, will lead a group discussion on the first draft of the U.S. Bishops pastoral on the "Concerns of Women in Church and Society," on Monday, Oct. 3, from 7:30-9 p.m. in Room 108 of the parish school. The topic will be: "The role of women in the Church today." Group discussion leaders from Transfiguration Parish, Pittsford, will also participate. Call the rectory at (716)334-3518 for information.

Dinner dance to be held

Most Precious Blood, Rochester — Father William Graf, pastor, will be honored at a dinner dance in the parish hall on Saturday, Oct. 1. The dance will follow a cocktail hour from 6:30-7:30 p.m. Father Graf is being honored for his efforts to stabilize the parish's finances.

Tickets are $17.50 per person and $35 per couple. Black Tie will provide music, and Romeo's will cater the event. Reservations are a must and can be bought at the rectory. For information, call the rectory at (716)458-6079.

Rosary service to mark 60th

Our Lady of Good Counsel, Rochester — The parish will celebrate its 60th anniversary with a recitation of the rosary in the church on Friday, Oct. 7, at 7 p.m. A reception will follow in the school auditorium. For information, call the rectory at (716)235-1130 or Mary Robinson at (716)328-0633.
