Class plans 45th reunion

St. Monica's, Rochester — The class of 1943 will celebrate its 45th reunion with a Mass at the church on Saturday, Oct. 29, at 4:30 p.m. A get-together will follow at the Party House, 677 Beahan Road, starting off with a cash bar at 6 p.m. A steamship-round buffet will be served at 8 p.m.

Reservations must be received by October 15. For reservations or information, call Tess Belding, (716)586-6091; George Gleichauf, (716)494-1380; or Marty Marchand at (716)436-3681.

Currently, the reunion committee is looking for graduates John Bender, Robert Brown, Cathleen Healy and Virginia Krenzer.

Parish celebrates 60th year

St. Margaret Mary's, Rochester — Bishop Joseph L. Hogan will celebrate a Mass marking the parish's 60th year on Sunday, Oct. 16, at 11 a.m. The parish steering committee will lead a procession to the altar, carrying parish memorabilia from the last 60 years. For information, call Jean D'Arienzo at (716)544-1745 after 4 p.m., or at (716)467-4350 from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

In conjunction with its celebration, the parish is sponsoring an adult-education series in the school. Topics to be discussed are: "When I disagree with the Church" — the individual's relationship to the Church and its teaching, the values and limits of dissent and factors affecting the formation of individual conscience — presented by Dr. Marvin Mich, associate professor of moral theology at St. Bernard's Institute, 7:30-9 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 19; "Life's celebrations in the Jewish tra-

Brother John J. Johnson, CFC, principal of Bishop Kearney High School, has announced the appointment of Barbara Jablonski as director of development and public relations for the school. Jablonski will coordinate development promotion, fund raising, and special events through alumni, parents' alumni, student associations, corporate and community organizations.

Jablonski comes to Bishop Kearney from the Monroe County Department of Parks, where she worked in program development, events coordination, grant writing and public relations for county special events — including the Lilac Festival, Highland Bowl Showcase series, and cultural events series at Ontario Beach and Highland Bowl. Jablonski holds a degree in business administration from Nazareth College.

St. John Fisher College has announced the following faculty appointments: James Bowlers, assistant professor of political science; Dea Gasbarre, assistant professor of teacher education; Nancy Kane, assistant professor of economics; Werner Schenk, instructor of mathematics; and Timothy Mech, visiting instructor of management.

The college has also added the following personnel to other departments: Jane Kirchner, assistant director of campus ministry; Kevin Myers, assistant director of admissions/transfer counselor; Leslie Sanders, admissions counselor; Darlene West, admissions counselor; Lynn Cornelius, acquisitions assistant; Yvette Archbald, librarian; Marie Calvaruso, librarian; Nannett Haynes, area coordinator in residential life; and Marsha Dumka, educational coordinator in the child care center.

John Cichello of St. Joseph's Parish, Weedsport, was among more than 100 men who participated in the annual Glenmary Home Missioners' Summer Volunteer Program. The program gave the men an opportunity to serve the underprivileged and to experience firsthand an active mission life by working with the rural poor of Lewis County, Kentucky. The volunteers repair and renovate homes, volundition" — audio-visual show detailing the ways in which Judaism marks such milestones as birth, education, marriage and death — presented by Rabbi Laurence Skopitz of Temple Beth David, 7:30-9 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 27; "A current affair: drug and alcohol dependency" — teen substance abuse and local groups that work to alleviate the resulting problems — presented by John Ryan, youth services coordinator for Park Ridge Chemical Dependency Program, 7:30-9 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 2; and "Long-term health care: Don't let it bankrupt you" — medical issues relevant to senior citizens and their families — presented by attorney Philip Burke, 1:30-3 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 9.

Each session will include a question/answer period and refreshments. All talks are free and open to the public. For information, contact Charles Prindle at (716)342-7114.

Synoptic gospels to be discussed

St. Thomas More, Rochester — Sister Mary Bryan Ford will lecture on the gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke in the school's music room from 7-9:30 p.m. on four consecutive Mondays starting Oct. 17 and ending Nov. 14. The diocese will give 10 hours of Scripture credit to anyone who completes the course. The cost is $10 for non-registered parishioners. For information, call the religious education office at (716)381-0470.

Parish continues film series

Holy Trinity, Webster — The parish continues its Wednesday evening film series with the following: Oct. 19 — Christian Fathering; Oct. 26 — Preparing for adolescence: The origins of self-doubt; Nov. 2 — Preparing for adolescence: Peer pressure and sexuality; Nov. 9 — What wives wish their husbands knew about women: The lonely housewife; Nov. 16 — What wives wish their husbands knew about women: Money, sex and children.

Each movie starts at 8 p.m. and will be preceded by a rosary recitation in the church at 7:30 p.m. For information, call Lucy DiCesare at (716)872-3821.
